War Office,
25th November, 1918.

His Majesty the KING has been pleased to approve of the award of the Military Medal to the undermentioned Ladies for distinguished services in the Field as recorded:—

Miss Rosa Brain (S./Nurse), T.F.N.S.

For exceptional courage and devotion to duty during a hostile air raid, when bombs were dropped on the hospital. One of the bombs wrecked the hut in which she was on duty, and, with the greatest coolness, she attended to all the patients in the ward, though she herself was wounded.

Miss Evelyn M. Cridlan, F.A.N.Y.

For gallantry during a bombing raid by the enemy. This lady performed most efficient service in conveying the wounded to hospital during the raid. She showed complete disregard for her personal safety, and her conduct was an example to all.

Miss Gwendolyn Gerrish Peyton Jones (Serjeant), F.A.N.Y.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty as a motor ambulance car driver during military operations. This lady was attached to a section of F.A.N.Y. working with the French Army, and in an emergency which arose was sent up to help to evacuate the hospitals, which were in danger of falling into enemy hands. She cleared a number of British and French wounded. During the next three days Miss Jones continued to assist in evacuating British and French from various dressing stations coming under heavy shell fire. During the time she was not actually driving her car this lady worked continuously, instead of taking necessary rest, and was of the utmost assistance to the British Field Ambulance personnel working in the hospital in obtaining particulars of the wants of the British wounded. Her courage and endurance in the face of danger won general admiration.
