

ities are at present at Ebersdorffe, and intend to continue there till the middle of the next month.

Francfort, Septemb. 16. The Armies that have acted on the Rhine this Summer will, 'tis thought, separate in few days, and go into their Winter-Quarters. The Imperialists work with great diligence on the Fortifications of Eppingen and other places, to bridle the Garrison of Philipsburg, and prevent the Enemy's Incurfions during the Winter towards the Neckar.

Cologne, Septemb. 20. The 14th instant arrived here the Marquis d'Aronches, Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Portugal to the Emperor; and on the 16th he continued his Journey towards Venna. The States of this Diocess are assembled at Bonne; and the Elector of Cologne has demanded of them an extraordinary Subsidy for maintaining the Forces he has now on foot.

Falmouth, Septemb. 16. Yesterday arrived here the Spanish Expedition, in 7 days from the Groyne; and the lame evening came in the Sujan and Mary, and the George Frigate, both from London, and bound to Cork in Ireland, and from thence to the West-Indies. A Dutch Privateer, called the Anna Jacoba, brought in this morning a Prize called the John of Dunkirk, laden with Deals and Tar for Brest, taken some days ago on the French Coast.

Plimouth, Septemb. 17. Yesterday came in the Germoon, who the 14th in the afternoon saw 7 French Men of War about 9 Leagues from Ushant, and gave the Westward, one of which gave her chase for some time. The same day arrived here the Smirna-Factor, with about 20 Sail bound to this place and Falmouth. And this day came into this Port His Majesty's Ship the Norwich, with several Merchant-ships bound to the West-Indies.

Hull, Septemb. 18. Yesterday arrived here our East Country Ships, being 8 Sail: A Fleet of 150 Light Colliers are passed by to the Northward, under Convoy of 3 Men of War.

Yarmouth, Septemb. 20. Yesterday came into this Road the Ree-Buck, with several Merchant-ships from the Southward; and this day the Selebay, with some Coasters.

Deale, Septemb. 20. On the 19th came into the Downes 3 Dutch Men of War, with several Merchant-ships from Holland; as also a Venetian Ship, called the Joseph, from Zant, bound to London; and this morning the said Dutch Men of War, with the Ships under their Convoy, sailed again to the Westward. The Squadron of Men of War commanded by Sir Cloudfley Shovell was yesterday in the Afternoon off the Northforeland, being bound for the Dutch Coast, to attend His Majesty in his Passage to England. The Wind is now at N. E.

Whitehall, Septemb. 21. An humble Address has been made to His Majesty by the Council, Burgeffes and Representatives of the several Counties of the Province of Maryland, in a General Assembly convened and met under Francis Nicholson, Esq; Governor in Chief of the said Province; in which they do with a deep Sorrow condole the Death of our late most Gracious Queen of Blessed Memory; and humbly assure His Majesty of their constant Duty and Fidelity to his Sacred Person and Government.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give notice, that a General Court will be held at the Bank on Tuesday the 24th Instant, at Ten in the Morning, for the Choice of a Director, and other Affairs of the Company. And all Persons concerned are desired to bring in Writing the Name of one Person qualified to be chosen.

Advertisements.

* * Twelve Sonata's, (newly come over from Rome) in 3 Parts: Composed by Signeur Archangelo Corelli, and dedicated to His Highness the Elector of Savoy this present year, 1695. are to be had, fairly prick'd from the true Original, at Mr. Raph Agutter's, Musical Instrument-maker, over against York-Buildings, in the Strand, London.

On Tuesday the first of October in the Morning, and the following Days, will be sold by Retail, by Mr. John and W. Turner, at the Rose and Crown without Temple-bar, the English Part of the Bibliotheca Eximia, consisting of a choice Collection of English Historians in all Volumes, viz. History, Travels, &c. together with the French and Italian Books, and some curious Manuscripts, will then be sold at reasonable Rates. Catalogues may be had at the place of Sale, and at Christ. Bateman's in Middle-Row in Holbourn.

Let in a Hackney-Coach, at the Admiralty-gate, near Whitehall, the 11th instant in the Evening, a sad-colour'd Cloak, lined with Shaloon near the same colour, and a black Velvet Cape. Whoever secures the said Cloak, and gives notice to Mr. Downs, Hosier, at the Black Boy over against St. Martin's Lane end, by Charing Cross, shall have 20 s. reward: Or if sold or pawn'd, their Money again, and Charges.

Whereas Richard Sheldon, aged 22 years, a lusty, tall, black Man, in dark colour'd Clothes; William Stanley, Jun. a middle-sized, black Man; Daniel Fullard, a well-set black Man; and Joseph Turton, a lusty Man, with short fair Hair, a Fidler, with the Clothes of the Regiment, all of Staffordshire, in or near Bromwich and Bilson, have deserted out of Col. John Hop's Company, in the Regiment of Foot-Guards, commanded by the Right Honourable the Lord Cutts: Whoever gives notice of the said Deserters to Serjeant Joseph Wildman, at the Golden Twisted Post at Charing cross, near Whitehall, shall have two Guineas for each. And if any of the above-named Persons shall voluntarily surrender themselves within 21 days, to the Right Honourable the Lord Ward, or any other Justice of Peace for the said County, and procure their Passport to the Company at Whitehall, they shall be pardoned their Desertion.

Thomas Thornton, a middle sized Man, aged about 30, full shoulder'd, a pale Complexion, a long Chin, his upper Lip falls in, several Cuts upon his hands, his third finger on one of his hands stands a little bent, his eye-brows black, and the hair on his head dark brown, went away the 12th instant from Mr. Robert Haughton in Groves-street, in Hackney-Parish, Middlesex, with above 36 l. in Money. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Waighton afore said, or at the Py'd Bull in Newgate-Market, London, shall have two Guineas reward.

Those who are curious in Seals cut in Cornelian, Agate, Beril, Onyx, Sardonyx, &c. with variety of fine Fancies, Heads and Figures, both Ancient and Modern, may be furnished by Jeremiah Marlow, Goldsmith, at the Spread-Eagle in Lombard Street: Where they may have Coats of Arms, Cyphers, and other Devices, curiously engraven on any sort of Stone.

At the Golden Spread Eagle in Fenchurch-street, near Mark Lane are to be sold Flanders-Fans, all sorts of Bankets, Coopers, and Turnery-wares, being the Goods of Mr. Philip Allen, lately deceased; beginning on Thursday the 26th Instant, from 9 in the Morning till 3 Afternoon, and so continue till all be sold: And at reasonable Rates.

Let the 13th instant, out of Napbury-Grounds, in St. Peter's Parish, St. Albans, in Hertfordshire, a brown Bay Gelding, about 15 hands, with a white Blaze on his Face, and a White Tail. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Samuel Willis at the Bell-Tin in Aldersgate Street, London, shall have 20 s. and reasonable charges.

A Very good Custom'd Inn upon the Road, at Anaster, near Grantham in Lincolnshire, is to be Let, with a large Farm, Barns, Stables and Dove-coat, the Rent about 80 l. per annum: It will be empty at Lady-day next. Enquire of Mr. Godley at Okeham in Rutlandshire, or of Mr. John Towne at Grantham.