

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 7. to Sunday November 11. 1695.

Legborne, October 24.

WE have an account from Argiers, that Shaban Dey, after having been several days tortured to discover his Wealth, was at last cut off; and that his Successor Abamet Dey had confirmed the Peace with the English.

Turin, Oct. 31. The Forces on both sides are gone into their Winter Quarters; and all is at present quiet in these parts.

Vienna, Nov. 2. The Imperial Forces that were lately encamped at Futacke near Peter-Waradin under the command of General Staremberg, as well as those in Transilvania, are separated and gone to their Quarters; 12 Regiments are to Winter in Transilvania, and those that were in the late Action at Lugos are to have their Quarters in Upper-Hungary. General Caprara has, since his return, had Audience of the Emperor, and several Meetings with the Ministers of this Court, to give them an account of the condition he left the Forces in, and to consider of what is to be done against the next Campaign. The Grand Signior is gone back towards Adrianople, and the Turks give out, that they will come much stronger, as well as earlier, into the Field the next Summer, than they did the last; but these are their usual Sayings at this time of the year.

Frankfort, Nov. 10. The Imperial Officers begin to raise their Recruits. And the Deputies of Franconia and Suabia have often Conferences about the Preparations to be made for the next Campaign. 'Tis said the Elector of Saxony intends to raise several new Regiments this Winter.

Cologne, Nov. 12. A Regiment is raising in these parts to be commanded by the Great Master of the Teutonic Order. Two Battalions of Neuburgers who served the last Campaign on the Upper-Rhine are coming back to take their Winter Quarters in the Country of Fuliers.

Paris, Nov. 11. The Marschal de Villeroy arrived the 9th Instant at Paris, where the Court is at present, and was very well received by the French King; The Marschal de Boufflers continues still there to assist at a great Council of War. The Marschal d'Estree is returned hither from Britany, where he commanded; and the Marschal de Tourville from Toulon. The Marschal de Foyense is on his way hither from Germany, and the Marschal de Casimat and the Duke de Vendosme are likewise shortly expected from Piedmont and Catalonia. The States of Britany are now assembled, and have caused the Patent to be registred, by which the Count de Toulouze is made Governor of that Province; but they have not yet agreed on the Free Gift they are to give the French King. The last Letters from Provence say, that the Convoy which had lain ready at Toulon above a fortnight, being bound for the Levant, was still detained in that Port by the bad Weather; and that a Ship belonging to Marseilles, and bound to Alexandria, was taken by two English Men of War that convoyed the Turkey Ships, and carried to Messina. Though here has been long a talk of several new Edicts to come out for the raising of Money, none have been yet published, the reason of which delay is the difficulty of finding such Funds as may produce the Moneys they want; and now 'tis said, that the Poll Tax will not only be continued, but augmented a third part, and because the Collection of it is found as difficult as uneasy, instead of gathering the same by the Kings Officers from particular Persons, every Town and Bourg will be Taxed in one Sum, which will be left to them to raise upon the Inhabitants as well as they can. The new Archbishop of Paris took yesterday possession of this Archbishoprick, after having received the Palium in the usual manner.

Brussels, Nov. 13. Orders are given for recruiting the Spanish Cavalry in the Service of these Provinces. The French are making some new Fortifications at Mons and Charleroy, and continue to work on their Lines. They find it a very difficult matter to raise Men, which among other Methods makes them, as we hear, offer their Freedom to all Apprentices that shall serve 3 years. The Elector of Bavaria has caused an Order to be published to forbid the Burghers to wear any Gold or Silver lace, allowing them half a year to dispose of what they may have at present by them.

Hague, Nov. 15. N. S. Yesterday was celebrated here His Majesties Birth-Day; and my Lord Villers gave a very splendid Entertainment to the Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Quality. The States of Holland have laid a Tax upon Marriages and Funerals, to be a Fund for paying the Interests of the Moneys they have taken up for the Service of the War. The Margrave of Bareith is still at Amsterdam, from whence he intends to go and meet the Elector of Brandenburgh at Cleves. They write from

Madrid

Madrid of the 17th of the last Month, that the Spaniards had again possessed themselves of Ostairicke and Palamos in Catalonia, (which were lately abandoned by the French) and that they were fortifying those places: The same Letters say, that the Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt, who commands the Auxiliary German Forces in Catalonia, was made Master of the Horse to the King of Spain, in the room of the Almirante of Castille, and that 'twas believed there would be other Alterations at that Court: They had received advice, that the Galeons, bound to the West-Indies, passed by the Canaries 7 days after their departure from Cadiz.

Falmouth, Nov. 4. Yesterday sailed hence the Smirna-Factor with about 40 Sail under her Convoy for the Downes, among which were 4 Ships from Barbadoes, 2 from Virginia, and one from Malaga. The same day came in the Judith of Rotterdam bound for Dublin.

Plymouth, Nov. 5. Yesterday came in here the Smirna-Factor with several Merchant Ships from Falmouth, and sailed the same day to the Eastward, but they are put back this Evening by contrary Winds. The Adventure of this place is arrived here laden with Sugars. Three Suedes. Merchant Ships, sailed the same day to the Eastward.

Deale, Nov. 7. Admiral Russell landed at Dover yesterday in the Evening, and is gone up to London; The Men of War that came home with him, except those that went to Portsmouth, arrived in the Downes this morning; and are now sailing for the River.

Portsmouth, Nov. 8. There are now at Spithead 14 Sail of English and Dutch Men of War; and at St. Helens two Dutch Flags with 6 Men of War and Merchant Ships homeward bound.

Yarmouth, Nov. 8. Yesterday came into this Road the Assistance, with divers laden Colliers; Here is likewise the Milford with other Ships bound for the River, and the Saphire bound to Hull.

Whitehall, Nov. 8. His Majesty has been pleased to Grant to Sir Salathiel Lovell Knt. one of His Majesties Serjeants at Law, and Recorder of London, the Office of Second Justice of the Counties of Chester, Flint, Denbigh, and Montgomery, in the room of Sir Littleton Powis, who is made one of the Barons of the Exchequer.

Windsor, Nov. 9. The King went yesterday from Burford, and came in the Evening to Woodstocke, having in His way seen Cornbury House; and about 10 this Morning His Majesty came to Oxford, being met at some distance from thence by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Chancellor of the University, and the Vice-Chancellor and the Doctors in their Habits, as also by the Magistrates of the City in their Formalities, and the Compliments of both being made to His Majesty, by the Vice-Chancellor for the one, and the Recorder for the other, they proceeded on Horseback before His Majesties Coach to the Theater, where a Splendid Entertainment was provided, and after a short stay there, His Majesty went on, and arrived here about 7 this Evening.
