Frankfort, Nov. 23. The Imperialists fortify Hailerott and Eppingen, and have good Garisons in both; The Deputies of Franconia and the Neighbouring Countreys have frequent Meetings to consult together about the preparations for the next Campagne. His said late Prince Lewis of Baden will go shortly to Vienna. The French have demolished the little Town of Bacarab on the Rhine.

Cologne, Nov. 25. The Elector of Cologne is expected at Bonn about the beginning of the next month; Strict care is taken by his Order to hinder the supplying the French with Hories out of these parts.

Paris, Nov. 25. The Marquis de Cascais Ambassador from the King of Portugal, who arrived here ab. ut 4 months ago, had his first Audience of the French King on the 21th Instant, which had been deferred upon account of some dispute between him and the Ministers of this Court concerning the Ceremonies of his Reception. His said that Commissions are given out for several new Companies of Foot, and that there are to be 36 in all, who are to form their Regiments of the Battalions and Independent Companies now in Garisons; and the places of these are to be supplied by the Militia. The Marschal de Boufflers is gone for Flanders, and intended to be this day at Lille. The Marschal de Catinat is not yet arrived from Piedmont, but daily expected.

Brussels, Nov. 27. Last Monday night two strong Parties marched from Namur to raise Contributions upon the Enemy, in which they succeeded so well, that they put the Village of Maroelles near Landreay, Grand Fay, and several other Places under Contribution, and brought away divers Hostages for payment of the same. On Thursday last the Spanish Cavalry was mustered here, and the like has been done in all the other Garisons where they are quartered. The French make new Levies in all their Conquests. We have advice, that the Guard they had at Morraigne upon the Schelde, consisting of 150 men, have all deserted with their Officers, and are come to Aeth; They are all Suiffers; and most of them are entred into the Service of the Allies.

Hague, Nov. 29. N. S. The States of Holland are still assembled, and their Deputies have had several Conferences with those of the Admiralties about our Sea Preparations. The Dutch Men of War that returned from the Straights under the command of Vice-Admiral Callemberg, are arrived with the Merchant Ships under their Convoy, part in the Maese, and the rest in the Texell, and other Places to which they belong. They write from Ghent, that the Execution of Major General Eulenbergh, late Governor of Dixmuyde, is appointed for to morrow.

Plimouth, Nov. 19. Yesterday sailed hence the Dreadnought and Hawke Fireship, and under their Convoy the Falkeland, George Long Commander, with 9 or 10 Merchant Ships more for the Downs.

Farmouth, Nov. 20. Yesterday came into this Road the Assistance, Capt. Robinson Commander, having retaken two small Vessels, and given chase during several hours to the Privateer who took them; but the night coming on the Privateer escaped. The Assistance and Mermaid sailed this day with a Fleet of Light Colliers to the Northward; and the Sapphire is come in with divers laden Colliers.

Deal, Nov. 21. His Majesties Ship the Charles Galley, Captain Elliot Commander, returned yesterday into the Downs; who cruising on the French Coast, fell in on Thursday last with a fleet of about 50 French Coasters near Havre de Grace, and though they were protected by 5 Privateers, Capt. Elliot took two of them laden with Corn, Salt, and Tobacco, and forced most of the rest ashore.

Hull, Nov. 22. The Anne and Barbara is come in here from Archangle; whence she parted about 7 weeks ago in company of two other Merchant Ships commanded by Capt. Allifson and Capt. Martin, but was separated from them the 3th Instant; The Abraham came out 14 days before them; and they left at Archangle the Dove, and the Robert Bonaventure.

Members of Parliament for

G. of Durham, Sir Will. Bowes, Will. Lambton Esq;
Exeter, Joseph Tiley, Seward, Esqs;
Dorchester, Serjeant Bond, Nathaniel Napper Esq;
Minhead, John Sanford, Alexander Lutterell, Esqs;
Coventry, George Bohun, Thomas Gery, Esqs;

Whereas, on Saturday the 16th Instant, a French Ship came near the Port of Hastings in Suffex, and put the Master aboard with two Letters, one directed to J. D. S. and the other to Mr. Thomas, both subscribed G. B. written one in English the other in French, relating to 18 Parcels of prohibited Goods: Which Letters and Goods were delivered (through mistake) to an Officer of His Majesties Customs: And whereas in the said Letters it is said, that there were more Goods to be brought into that Port, and that the said Ship was intended to serve in it all this Winter, His Majesty is graciously pleased, that the Person or Persons that were appointed to receive the said Letters and Goods at the Port aforesaid, or any of the Accomptants, Managers, Agents and Conveyors, shall be Pardoned; Provided and on Condition, that within two months after this notice be or any of them, shall make a full discovery to any of His Majesties Secretaries of State, of the Party and Parties so corresponding with France, and concerned in the 18 Parcels of Prohibited Goods aforesaid: And further His Majesty is graciously pleased, that ever and besides the Pardon as aforesaid (the Person or Persons so discovering) shall receive out of His Majesties Treasury the Sum of 50 l. to be immediately paid by the Commissioners of His Majesties Treasury.

Admiralty-Office, Nov. 22. Whereas a Letter hath been sent to the Commissioners of the Navy, signed R. B. wherein the Person subscribing offers to make discovery of some forged Tickets, if the R. post against his Name be taken off. These are to give notice, that if the said Person do apply himself to the Navy Board, and make such discovery, his R. shall be taken off, and he shall be further encouraged according to what has been formerly published by Order in the Gazette.
