PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 16th day of April, 1919, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Orders in Council bearing date the 30th March, 1917, and 14th January, 1919, to authorize the Minister of Pensions to award pensions, allowances, and gratuities to Seamen and Marines disabled in consequence of service during the present war, on the scales and subject to the conditions prescribed in the Regulations annexed thereto:

“And whereas it is provided therein that the additions allowable under Naval Regulations in respect of Petty Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer time, Good Conduct Badges, Medal or character, shall be made to the minimum pension corresponding to the degree of disablement and that a further addition shall be made in respect of service in accordance with a special scale:

“And whereas by Your Royal Warrants bearing date the 29th day of March, 1917, and the 12th day of October, 1918, Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to sanction the grant of disablement pensions to soldiers disabled in the present war in addition to service pensions:

“And whereas we are of opinion that similar provision should be made for Seamen and Marines disabled during the present war while serving in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the grant to discharged Seamen and Marines who have been awarded disablement pensions on the minimum scale corresponding to their degree of disablement under Your Orders in Council of 30th March, 1917, and 14th January, 1919, without any additions for rank or service, good conduct badges, medal or character, of permanent pensions for service, in addition, under the following conditions:—

(1) If a Naval rating has 22 years or more of pensionable service, his pension shall be assessed in accordance with Articles 1934, 1935 and 1938 of the King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(2) If a Marine has 21 years or more of pensionable service, his pension shall be assessed in accordance with Articles 1197 and 1198, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(3) If a Naval rating with 14 and less than 22 years of pensionable service has been granted a permanent disablement pension on the minimum scale without any additions for rank or service, good conduct badges, or medal (or is entitled by the nature of his injuries to a permanent pension on that scale the rate of which has not been finally assessed) he may be granted a permanent pension for service assessed in accordance with Article 1932, Clauses 1, 2 and 4, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(4) Subject to the foregoing condition as to permanence of the disablement pension, a continuous service man who has completed 10 years on the Continuous Service system may be granted a permanent pension for service assessed under Article 1932, Clauses 3 and 4, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(5) If a marine with 14 and less than 21 years of pensionable service has been granted a disablement pension on the minimum scale without any additions for rank or service, good conduct badges or medal, he may, subject to the aforesaid condition regarding the permanence of the award, be granted a permanent pension for service assessed in accordance with Article 1208, Clauses 1 and 3, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(6) The pensions granted for service under the foregoing proposals shall be payable from the same date as the disablement pension granted under Your Orders in Council of 30th March, 1917, and 14th January, 1919.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
