

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of May, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the 10th day of April, 1919, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of one moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Fincham, in the County of Norfolk, and in the Diocese of Ely:

"Whereas the alternate right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Fincham is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in the Reverend Alan Gwyn Blyth, of the Rectory, Northrepps, in the said County of Norfolk, as the surviving Trustee upon trusts for the sale of the said share of the Advowson under the terms of the Will, dated the 21st day of August, 1879, of the late Reverend William Blyth, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the said Alan Gwyn Blyth is therefore the alternate Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice on alternate vacancies in the Benefice:

"And whereas the said Alan Gwyn Blyth is desirous that the alternate right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Fincham should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, now Bishop of Ely, and his Successors in the same Bishopric:

"And whereas the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the alternate right of Patronage of the said Benefice of Fincham which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the alternate right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Fincham:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Alan Gwyn Blyth, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106, (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the alternate right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Fincham, now vested in him, the said Alan Gwyn Blyth, as Trustee, shall be transferred to the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his Successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and by his Successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ely.

Privy Council Office, May 13, 1919.

EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1875.

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that, after the expiration of forty days from the date hereof, it is proposed to submit to His Majesty in Council, in pursuance of the Explosives Act, 1875, the draft of an Order in Council exempting Di-nitro-phenol under certain conditions from the provisions of the last-named Act.

And notice is hereby further given that, in accordance with the provisions of the first-named Act, copies of the proposed draft Order in Council can be obtained by any public body, within forty days of the date of this notice, at the Privy Council Office, Whitehall.
