

cil bearing date the Twenty-second day of October, 1906, and entitled "The East Africa Order in Council, 1906," it was provided that there should be a Legislative Council in and for the said Protectorate:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the aforesaid Seventh Article of the aforesaid Order in Council of the Twenty-second day of October, 1906:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers on that behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as "The East Africa Order in Council, 1919."

II. The Seventh Article of the above recited Order in Council of the Twenty-second day of October, 1906, is as from the coming into operation of this Order hereby revoked without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, and in place thereof the following Article shall be substituted and take effect:—

"VII. There shall be a Legislative Council in and for the Protectorate, constituted in such manner as may be directed by any Instructions under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, and as may be provided by any law for the time being in force in the Protectorate.

"From and after the date of the coming into operation of this Order, the present Legislative Council shall cease to exist."

III. His Majesty, His heirs and successors, in Council may at any time revoke, alter, or amend this Order.

IV. This Order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the East Africa Protectorate and shall commence and come into operation on a date fixed by the Governor by Proclamation.

And the Right Honourable Viscount Milner, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of May, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts, 1860 and 1898, that is to say, the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 142, and the Act of the 61st and 62nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 23, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 18th day of July, 1918, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts, 1860, and 1898, that is to say, the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 142, and the Act of the 61st and 62nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 23, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous Benefices, situate within the metropolis, and within the diocese of London, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of All Saints, Paddington, and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union:

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, has caused proposals for a Scheme for effecting an union of the said two Benefices to be laid before us, which proposals were prepared under the 7th and 8th Sections of the firstly mentioned Act, and were approved by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, and were assented to by the Patrons of the said two Benefices, that is to say, by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as the Patron, in right of his See, of the said Benefice and Vicarage of All Saints, Paddington, and also as the Patron, in right of his See, from and after the exercise of the next turn of presentation, of the said Benefice and Vicarage of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, and by George Abraham Gibbs, of Tyntesfield, Bristol, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament and a Lieutenant-Colonel in Your Majesty's Army, as the Patron, for the exercise of the next turn of presentation, of the said Benefice and Vicarage of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, and the same proposals were also assented to by the Vestry of the New Parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, and by the Vestry of the New Parish of All Saints, Paddington:

"And whereas the said proposals comprised, amongst other things, the severance of a portion of the said New Parish of All Saints, Paddington, and its union with the contiguous Benefice of Paddington, situate within the Metropolis, and within the said Diocese of London:

"And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said Benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, and of the said Benefice of All Saints, Paddington, should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the other matters hereinafter contained, should be made as are hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels, Paddington, is now full, the Reverend Arthur Heber Browne, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present Incumbent thereof, the said Benefice of All Saints, Paddington, is also now full, the Reverend William Boyd, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present Incumbent thereof, and the said Benefice of Paddington is also now full, the Reverend Edward Grose Hodge, Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, being the present Incumbent thereof:

"And whereas the said Arthur Heber Browne has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, as such Bishop, and also as such Patron as aforesaid, and as the Patron of the said Benefice of Paddington, and the said George Abraham Gibbs,
