

The French Troops are in motion again towards the Meuse; and to observe them, Orders have been sent to all the Troops of the Allies to be in a readiness to march; and the Elector of Bavaria intends to go to morrow to Louvaine, his Equipage being sent before: Some French Troops are moving likewise in Flanders, between Courtray and Furnes, and the like Orders have been sent to our Garisons on that side. A French Party of 90 men belonging to the Garison of Mons, burnt 3 or 4 nights ago some Houses in the Villages of Dielbeck and St. Anne, about a League from hence; whereupon a Detachment of this Garison was immediately sent out, but could not over take them. The Elector of Cologne arrived the 19th instant at Liege, where he intends to pass the rest of the Winter.

Hague, Dec. 23. N. S. The Letters from Flanders lay, the French have drawn a considerable Body of Troop together on their Frontiers. The Forces of the Allies are in a readiness to observe them; and the Officers are all commanded to repair to their several Commands. The States of Holland will separate to morrow for a Fortnight, by reason of the Holydays. The Spanish Envoy, Don Francisco de Quiros, is recovered of his late Illness.

Pembroke, Dec. 10. The 8th instant came into this Harbour a Pink of about 100 Tuns, Delbridge Master, from Newfoundland.

Falmouth, Dec. 12. On the 10th came in here a Danish Ship called the St. Mathias from Norway; and this morning sailed hence 3 Dutch Capers to Cruise.

Newcastle, Dec. 14. The laden Fleet with their Convoy continue still here by reason of the contrary Winds.

Plimouth, Dec. 15. The 12th sailed hence 8 or 9 Danes and Suedes bound to St. Ubes. And yesterday came in the Bear from Bergen, with another Danish Ship, and 2 Suedes, called the Stockholm and the Two Apples, all bound to Portugal.

Weymouth, Dec. 16. The Smirna Factor is put into our Road by contrary Winds, together with the Greyhound Frigate, the Martin Ketch, and the Quaker Ketch, a Vessel laden with Masts from New England, and some other Merchant Ships bound to the Eastward. The Weather has been and still continues very Stormy; and a Vessel laden with Stone is sunk in the Road, but the rest of the Ships are all safe.

Portsmouth, Dec. 17. On Friday last failed from Spithead His Majesty's Ships the Sterling Castle, the Lion, Archangle, and Machine Fireship, with a Fleet of Merchant Ships bound to the Canaries. The Dutch outward bound Ships are still at St. Helens.

There are lately taken and now in Newgate, John Turner, aged about 30, middle size well set Man, ruddy Complexion, round visage, small grey Eyes; wears a brown bob Wig, his own Hair inclining to red: James Stanley, aged about 30, a lusty raw Bon'd Man, pretty tall, long thin visage, distinguished with the Small Pox, a dimple in his Chin, full grey eyes, a thin sharp Nose; his own Hair dark brown: And John Stewara, aged between 40 and 50, broad full Face, of a ruddy Complexion, and black Eyebrows: All which Persons are suspected to have committed several Robberies on the Highway, particularly in the County of Norfolk. Whoever has been Rob'd by them, may have a sight of them at the Goal aforesaid.

Advertisements.

Reflections upon a Libel lately Printed. Entituled, The Charge of Seditiousness against Dr. Tilletson considered, &c. Printed for R. Chiswell at the Rose and Crown in St. Pauls Church yard.

A Theological Discourse of last Wills and Testaments: Or, Advice to make a Will in Health; To make a Christian Will; A Prudent Will; A Just Will; And a Charitable Will. To which is added, An Account of the Corporation for Relief of Poor Widows and Children of Clergy-Men. By W. Aiton, D.D. Printed for B. Aylmer in Cornhill. Octavo.

These are to give Notice to all Persons that have subscribed to the Ground Plan and Prospect of His Majesty's Royal Hospital near Chelsea, drawn by Robert Ingham, That the said Prospect is now finished and ready to be delivered to the Subscribers, at Mr. Ingham's Lodgings in the said Hospital, and at Mr. Ingham's House by Skinners-Hall in Dowgate, London, and to be sold after the 23th of this month.

Lost the 11th instant, a silver Pendulum Watch, with a Tortois Shell Case, inlaid with silver, made by Mr. Seignior in Exchange-Alley. Whoever brings it to Daniel Quares, Watchmaker in Exchange Alley, shall have a Guinea Reward; if paid their Money 22-10.

Lost the 17th instant between Covent Garden and St. Clements Church in the Strand, 2 Martin Skins. Whoever brings them to Mr. Stephen Furrier, at the White Horse in the Strand, shall have a good Reward: Or, he that discovers the Party that found them, shall have 5 s.

Lost the 9th past coming from St. Mary Woolnoth Church, Lombard Street, to Aldermanbury, and back to Queen-Street and St. Thomas Apostles, a Book in Folio, with a Parchment cover, quite a Quire of Paper, being the Ship Matthews Account, Wilt. 2 toward, Master. Whoever brings it to Lloyds Coffee-house in Lombard Street, shall be well Rewarded.

Lost the 4th instant, 3 Sheets of Paper, of Written Accounts, importing the daily Disbursements of the 3 last Months to the said day. Whoever brings them to Mr. George Constantine's Grecian Coffee-house in Devereux-Court, shall have 5 s.

Commission of Bankrupt being Awarded against Benj. Hutchinson of Newcastle upon Tyne, Merchant; All who owe him Money, or have any Effects of his in their Hands, are desired forthwith to give Notice thereof to Mr. Tho. Wright in Clements-lane by Lombard Street, London, or to Mr. Mark Browell in Newcastle, Attorney at Law, two of the Commissioners: And any Persons who shall discover to the said Commissioners any concealed part of the said Bankrupts Estate, shall be well Rewarded.

The Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against Samuel Kingston, late of London, Turner, intend to meet the 25th instant, at Reads Coffee-house in Blackfriars, at 3 after Noon, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupts Estate; where all the Creditors of the said Kingston are to come and pay their Contribution Money, and prove their Debt, or else they will be excluded the said Dividend.

A Legacy being left by Richard Richardson late of Bow, near London, deceased, unto one Richard Richardson who was Born in Cumberland, and about 3 years since went into Ireland, as is supposed. If he repairs to Edward Maxwell, Merchant, in London, he may be farther informed, provided he comes within 3 years from the 9th of May last past.

Stolen or Stray'd the 2d instant out of a Pasture near Harwich in Essex, a grey Mare, shorne Mare, about 13 hands, full aged; also a Roan Horse, 12 hands, 4 white feet, and a star in his forehead. Whoever gives Notice of them, (so as they be had again) to Mr. Heselfoot, Surgeon of Harwich, or to Mr. Heselfoot of Doctors Commons, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Stolen or Stray'd the 10th of October last, out of the Grounds of Mr. Will. Bramley at Thacham in Berkshire, a grey Nag, feathered about the Neck and Head, his Mane half shorn, a Hunting Tail, middle aged, about 14 hands, tall his paces. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. Bramley aforesaid, or to Mr. John Dodson at the Crown in the Minories, (so as he be had again) shall have a Guinea Reward and Charges.

Lost the beginning of Novemb. last from the backside of Illington, a bay Mare above 14 hands high, a Star in her Forehead, with Saddle-spots on both sides her Back, her hind Feet white, bob Tail'd, her Main shorn about half way, with all her Paces, and comes 7. Whoever gives notice of her to Mr. Moore, at the George Inn near Aldersgate, so she may be recover'd, shall have 20 s. Reward and reasonable Charges.