

under the said section may be varied or revoked by any subsequent Order so made:

And whereas His Majesty by the Jury List Order, 1918, made certain modifications in the provisions of the said Juries Acts, 1825 and 1862:

And whereas it is now desirable to revoke the said Order and to substitute fresh modifications for the modifications made thereby:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Jury List Order, 1918, is hereby revoked, and this Order shall have effect in substitution therefor with respect to the preparation of the jury list for the current year:

Provided that the provisions of section thirty-eight of the Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to this revocation as they apply to the repeal of Acts of Parliament.

2. In this Order—

the expression "the 1917 list" shall mean the jury list in force for the year nineteen hundred and seventeen;

the expression "the 1918 list" shall mean the supplemental list made out in pursuance of the Jury List Order, 1918;

the expression "the existing lists" shall mean the 1917 list and the 1918 list read together as directed in the said Jury List Order, 1918;

the expression "the second supplemental list" shall mean the supplemental list authorised by this Order to be compiled.

3. The overseers in making out the jury list for their respective parishes and townships shall, as may seem to them best for avoiding unnecessary expense and labour, either:—

(1) proceed as directed by section eight of the Juries Act, 1825--

(2) take copies of the existing lists and strike out therefrom the names of all such persons appearing therein as are dead or have removed from the parish or township or have attained the age of sixty-five years or are otherwise not qualified and liable to be included in the list for the parish or township, and shall then proceed to make out a second supplemental list in which shall be included the names of all persons qualified and liable to be included in the jury list for the parish or township whose names are not included in the existing lists.

The overseers, if they make out a second supplemental list, shall do so in the same form as is prescribed with respect to jury lists by section eight of the Juries Act, 1825, as amended by any subsequent enactment.

4. Where the list is made out as authorised by Article 3 (2) of this Order the existing lists revised as aforesaid and the second supplemental list made out as aforesaid shall be read together as if the names in the 1918 list and in the second supplemental list were inserted in proper alphabetical order in their proper places in the 1917 list revised as aforesaid, and shall together constitute the jury list for the parish or township.

5. The overseers, instead of fixing a copy of the jury list upon the principal door of every church, chapel and other public place of religious worship in manner required by section nine of the Juries Act, 1825, shall before the first Sunday in September deposit or exhibit the jury list at such place in the parish as they think most suitable for the purpose of enabling persons desirous of so doing to inspect the same, and shall on the first three Sundays in the month of September fix upon the principal door of every church, chapel or other public place of religious worship within the parish or township a notice stating that the jury list has been made out and specifying the place at which the list is deposited or exhibited in accordance with the provisions of this Order, and attention shall be called in the notice to the fact that liability for jury service has been extended by section five of the Juries Act, 1918, to persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five.

6. Every inhabitant of the parish or township shall at any time during the three first weeks in September be entitled to inspect the jury list free of charge.

7. The precept to be issued under section four of the Juries Act, 1862, shall be in the form set out in the Schedule to this Order, or as near thereto as may be, instead of in the form set out in the Schedule to that Act.

8. Any reference to the jury list, or to the making of the jury list, in the Juries Act, 1825, or the Juries Act, 1862, shall be construed as a reference to the jury list as made, and the making of the jury list, in accordance with the provisions of this Order, and the provisions of sections forty-five and forty-six of the Juries Act, 1825, which relate respectively to penalties on overseers and to penalties on clerks of the peace and others for neglect of duty under that Act shall apply to refusal or neglect to comply with the provisions of this Order as they apply to refusal or neglect to comply with requirements of that Act.

9. This Order may be cited as the Jury List Order, 1919.

Almeric FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE.

PRECEPT FOR RETURNING LIST OF JURORS.

County of

To the overseers of the poor of the parish [or township] of

You are hereby required to make out before the first day of September next and in manner hereinafter directed a true list containing the names of all men, being subjects of the King or aliens having been domiciled in England or Wales for ten years or upwards, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-five residing within your parish [or township] qualified to serve upon juries; that is to say, of every man who has in his own name, or in trust for him, a clear income of ten pounds by the year in lands or tenements, whether freehold, copyhold, or customary tenure, or of ancient demesne, situate in the said county, or in rents issuing out of any such lands or tenements, or in such lands, tenements, and rents taken together, in fee simple or fee tail, or for his own life, or for the life of any other person, and also of every such man who has a clear income of twenty pounds by the year in lands or tenements situate in the said county, held by lease for the absolute term of twenty-one years, or some longer term, or for any term of years determinable on any life or lives and also of every such man who is a householder in your parish [or township], and is rated or assessed to the