

ployed by either of those corporations, and all pilots licensed under any Act of Parliament or charter for the regulation of pilots.

The Household servants of His Majesty.

Officers of the Post Office.

Commissioners of Customs and Excise and officers, clerks, or other persons acting in the management and collection of the Customs and Excise.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and officers or persons appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or employed by them or under their authority or direction in any way relating to the duties of Inland Revenue.

General and Additional Commissioners of Income Tax holding certificates under the Income Tax Act, 1842.

Sheriffs' officers and servants.

High Constables.

Officers of the rural and Metropolitan police.

Officers of the Houses of Lords and Commons.

Dentists registered under the Dentists Act of 1878 or any enactment amending the same.

Any other persons exempt by virtue of any Act of Parliament.

You are to note that under the provisions of section five of the Juries Act, 1918, persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five are qualified and liable for jury service, and you shall therefore not strike out of the existing lists the name of any person by reason only that he has since the date on which those lists were made attained the age of sixty years, and you shall take care to include in the new list or in the second supplemental list (as the case may be) the names of all persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five, being persons otherwise qualified and liable to be included in the jury list and whose names are not included in the existing lists.

When you have made out such list or such second supplemental list you are authorised to order a sufficient number of copies thereof to be printed, the expense of which printing will be allowed you by the parish [or township] except that if you have not made a new list but have made a second supplemental list only you are not authorised to order such supplemental list to be printed unless it contains thirty names or upwards.

You are next required before the first Sunday in September to deposit or exhibit a copy of the new list or if you have not made a new list then copies of the 1917 and 1918 list revised as aforesaid and signed by you with a copy of the second supplemental list appended thereto at such place within your parish [or township] as you shall think most suitable for the purpose of enabling persons desirous of so doing to inspect the same, and you shall also on the first three Sundays in September fix upon the principal door of every church, chapel or other public place of religious worship within your parish [or township] a notice to the following effect, inserting in the first paragraph the time and place of which you will be previously informed by the Clerk to the Justices:—

“Take notice that the jury list for the parish [or township] of has been made out and is deposited or exhibited at and that all objections to the list will be heard by the Justices of the Petty Session on the day of September next, at the hour of at

“The attention of all persons concerned is called to the fact that liability for jury service has been extended by section five of the Juries Act, 1918, to persons between the ages of sixty and sixty-five, and the names of all such persons, being otherwise qualified and liable for jury service have been included in the said list.”

You must allow any inhabitant of your parish [or township] at any time during the first three weeks in September next to inspect the list so deposited or exhibited as aforesaid free of charge; and you must also produce the said list at the Petty Session and there answer all such questions as shall be put to you by His Majesty's Justices of the Peace there present touching the list: And these several matters you are in wise to omit, upon the peril that may ensue.

Given under my hand at in the said county of.....

(Clerk of the Peace.)

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 1st day of May, 1919, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (herein-after called ‘the said Benefice’) of Church Lawford (being a Rectory) with the Vicarage of King's Newnham annexed, in the County of Warwick and in the Diocese of Coventry:

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Church Lawford with King's Newnham is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Most Noble John Charles Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry (hereinafter called ‘the said Duke of Buccleuch’):