

as Fellow. The number of such Fellows shall not exceed five at any one time.

The exercise by the Warden and Fellows of the powers conferred by this clause shall be subject to the provisions of Statute VII." That in Statute III, Clause 14, the number "XIII" shall be substituted for the number "XII."

That in Statute III, Clause 17, the figures 12, 13 and 16 shall be substituted for the figures 11, 12 and 15, and in Clause 20 the figures 13 shall be substituted for the figures 12.

That Clauses 11 to 22 of Statute III shall be re-numbered as Clauses 12 to 23.

In Statute IV (April 1913 Edition as amended by Statutes made by the College on the 13th day of May, 1913 and the 13th day of June, 1916, respectively, and approved by Orders in Council on the 14th day of May, 1914 and the 13th day of March, 1917, respectively).

That in Statute IV, Clause 3, the number xiii shall be substituted for the number xii.

IN STATUTES VI-XII (April 1913 Edition).

That after Statute VI there shall be inserted the following new Statute:—"VII 1. Subject to the Charges imposed or authorized by the foregoing Statutes (other than Statute III, Clause 11) there shall be payable out of the Revenues of the College appropriated to the purposes of these Statutes:—

"(i) To a Lecturer in The Conflict of Laws (Private International Law) the annual sum of £300;

"(ii) To the Drummond Professor of Political Economy the annual sum of £400, in addition to the sum payable to him under the foregoing provisions of these Statutes;

"(iii) To the Gladstone Professor of Political Theory and Institutions the annual sum of £200, in addition to the sum payable to him under the foregoing provisions of these Statutes;

"(iv) To the Professor of Economic History (in the event of the establishment of a Professorship in that subject) the annual sum of £300, together with the yearly sum of £200, as the emolument of a Fellowship held by him in the College;

"(v) To a Lecturer or Lecturers, to be called Chichele Lecturers (to be appointed by the Warden and Fellows) who shall deliver a special course or courses of lectures in such subjects connected with the studies of Law History Political Theory or Economics as the Warden and Fellows, after considering any representation from the Hebdomadal Council, shall determine, the sum of £100 for each such course;

"(vi) To the Professor of Economic History an additional annual sum of £400;

"(vii) To a Professor or Reader (in the event of such Professorship or Readership being established) in some subject connected with the studies of Political Theory or Economics, the yearly sum of £300, together with the yearly sum of £200, as the emolument of a Fellowship held by him in the College;

"(viii) Towards the maintenance of the Bodleian Library an additional yearly sum not exceeding £1,000.

"2. In providing out of the Revenues of the College as they shall become available, for the charges created or authorized by this Statute and by Statute III, Clause 11, the following order of priority shall (as amongst such charges respectively) be observed, so far as may be:—

"(1) Charges (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) shall be, and Charge (v) and the charges for not more than two Fellowships under Statute III Clause 11, may be provided for, and brought into operation, in priority to Charges (vi), (vii) and (viii), and to the charges for the remaining three Fellowships under Statute III, Clause 11, and (as amongst themselves) in such order as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time determine.

"(2) Charges (vi), (vii) and (viii) and the charges for the remaining three Fellowships under Statute III, Clause 11, shall be provided for, and brought into operation (as amongst themselves) in such order as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time determine.

The provisions of this Statute for Charges (iv), (vi) and (vii) shall only take effect on the condition that the election or appointment of each of the several Professors or Readers, provided for by the same, shall be vested in a Board constituted by Statute of the University, of which two members at least shall be persons elected by the Warden and Fellows, and the provisions of this Statute for Charge (i) shall only take effect on the condition that the election or appointment of the Lecturer provided for thereby shall be vested in an Electoral Board consisting of the Chichele Professor of International Law, the Vinerian Professor of English law, a person elected by the Warden and Fellows, a person elected by the Board of the Faculty of Law, and the Chairman for the time being of the Council of Legal Education appointed by the Inns of Court."

That Statutes VII to XII shall be re-numbered as Statutes VIII to XIII.

And whereas at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of our said College, specially summoned for that purpose, and held on the 10th day of June, 1919, it was unanimously resolved by those present and voting at the Meeting, that the further alterations in and additions to the said Statutes, which are hereinafter specified, should be made, that is to say:—

IN STATUTE VII (April 1913 Edition).

That in Statute VII there shall be inserted immediately after Clause 6 thereof the Clause following, that is to say:—

"7. The Warden and Fellows may from time to time, by a Resolution of a Stated General Meeting, grant to any retiring Officer or Chaplain of the College who shall have held his Office or Chaplaincy, or successively and without interruption (no period less than a consecutive period of one year being reckoned as an interruption) two or more of such Offices or Chaplaincies, for a period of not less than twenty years before attaining the age of sixty-five years, or such later age as the Warden and Fellows may for any special reason determine in any case, a pension of an amount not exceeding one half of his emoluments as such Officer or Chaplain when he vacated his Office or Chaplaincy. For the purposes of this Clause his emoluments shall be deemed to include the emoluments of any Fellowship held by him as such Officer or Chaplain.