PROCLAMATION OF PEACE.

In pursuance of a Warrant from the Right Honourable Lord Edmund Bernard Talbot, G.C.V.O., designate, D.S.O., Deputy to the Earl Marshal of England, in obedience to His Majesty's Order in Council of the 1st instant, His Majesty's Officers of Arms this day made Proclamation declaring a Definitive Treaty of Peace with the German Government.

At half-past eleven in the morning the Deputy Earl Marshal and the Officers of Arms, habited in their tabards, accompanied by the High Steward of Westminster, assembled at St. James's Palace, and attended by the Sergeants-at-Arms carrying their maces, proceeded to the balcony in Friary Court, where, after the trumpets had sounded thrice, His Majesty's Proclamation was read by Sir Henry F. Burke, K.C.V.O., C.B., Garter Principal King of Arms.

A procession was then formed and proceeded to Charing Cross in the following order:—

An Escort of Life Guards.

The Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., G.C.V.O.,
C.B.,

High Steward of Westminster,
in his carriage.

State Trumpeters.

First carriage.

Two Sergeants-at-Arms, bearing their Maces.

The Hon. Philip P. Cary,
Bluemantle Pursuivant
(on horseback).

Algar H. S. Howard, Esq., M.C.,
Rouge Dragon Pursuivant
(on horseback).

G. Woods Wollaston, Esq., M.V.O.,
Richmond Herald
(on horseback).

Second carriage.

A. W. S. Cochrane, Esq., M.V.O.,
Chester Herald.

Third carriage.

G. A. de L. Lee, Esq.,
York Herald.

W. A. Lindsay, Esq.,
Windsor Herald.

Fourth carriage.

C. H. Athill, Esq., M.V.O.,
Norroy King of Arms.

At Charing Cross, York Herald read the Proclamation, looking towards Whitehall. The procession then moved on to the site of Temple Bar, where a temporary barrier had been placed across the street to mark the boundary of the City of London. Richmond Herald then advanced between two Trumpeters, preceded by two of the Life Guards, and rode up to the barrier, demanding in the ancient form admission into the City. Bluemantle was then conducted by the City Marshal to the Lord Mayor, who was in attendance in his State carriage, together with the Aldermen and Officers of the Corporation, and the Order of His Majesty in Council having been delivered to his Lordship, who read it aloud, direction was given to remove the barrier. Bluemantle Pursuivant was then conducted to his place in the procession, which moved on into the City, the High Steward of Westminster having filed off at Temple Bar, the boundary of the City.

At the corner of Chancery Lane the Proclamation was read by Windsor Herald.

The Procession, followed by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Officers of the Corporation, then moved on to the end of Wood Street, where the Cross formerly stood in Cheapside, and the Proclamation was there read by Chester Herald.

The Procession then proceeded to the Royal Exchange, where the Proclamation was read the fifth and last time by Norroy King of Arms.

The Trumpets sounded thrice previous to and immediately after each reading.

The Officers of Arms and the Sergeants-at-Arms were afterwards entertained by the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House.
