

country which was then at war with His Majesty:

And whereas, the question whether it is desirable that the certificate should be revoked has been referred to the Certificates of Naturalization (Revocation) Committee, constituted under Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914. And whereas, that question has been answered by the Committee in the affirmative:

Now, therefore, by this order made in pursuance of sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate, and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof.

E. Shortt,
One of His Majesty's
Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall,
2nd July, 1919.

BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS OF ALIENS ACTS, 1914 AND 1918.

In the Matter of Samuel Goldfarb.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

Whereas I am satisfied as the result of an inquiry conducted by the Certificates of Naturalization (Revocation) Committee that Samuel Goldfarb to whom a certificate of naturalization numbered 21246 was granted on the 4th November, 1911, was not of good character at the date of the grant and further that the continuance of the certificate is not conducive to the public good.

Now, therefore, by this Order made in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof and I further order the said certificate to be given up and to be cancelled.

And I further direct that Sarah the wife of the said Samuel Goldfarb shall cease to be a British subject.

E. Shortt,
One of His Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

Whitehall,
26th June, 1919.

BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS OF ALIENS ACTS, 1914 AND 1918.

In the Matter of Frederick William Frank.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

Whereas I am satisfied as the result of an inquiry conducted by the Certificates of Naturalization (Revocation) Committee that Frederick William Frank, to whom a certificate of naturalization numbered A 8380 was granted on the 17th June, 1895 (a) has shown himself by act and speech to be disaffected and disloyal to His Majesty (b), has during the war in which His Majesty was engaged unlawfully traded with the enemy, and further, that the continuance of his certificate is not conducive to the public good,

Now, therefore, by this Order made in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof and I further order the said certificate to be given up and to be cancelled.

E. Shortt,
One of His Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

Whitehall,
8th July, 1919.

BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS OF ALIENS ACTS, 1914 AND 1918.

In the Matter of August Dehe.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

Whereas a certificate of naturalization was granted in the United Kingdom during the present war to August Dehe, who at the date of the grant of the certificate was the subject of a country which was then at war with His Majesty.

And whereas the question whether it is desirable that the certificate should be revoked has been referred to the Certificates of Naturalization (Revocation) Committee constituted under Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, and whereas that question has been answered by the Committee in the affirmative,

Now, therefore, by this order made in pursuance of sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate, and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof, and I further order the said certificate to be given up and to be cancelled.

And I further direct that M. Dehe, the wife, and also the minor children of the said August Dehe shall cease to be British subjects.

E. Shortt,
One of His Majesty's
Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall, 28th July, 1919.

The Right Honourable Edward Shortt, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has appointed James Arthur Bernard Horsley, Esquire, A.M.I.E.E., to be an Electrical Inspector of Mines under the Coal Mines Acts, 1887 to 1917, and has directed him to act also as an Inspector for the purposes of the Metaliferous Mines Regulation Acts, 1872 and 1875, and of the Quarries Act, 1894; and has further appointed him to be an Inspector of Factories and Workshops for the purposes of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901.
