Privy Council Office, 22nd August, 1919.

The following Statute duly passed on the 24th day of May, 1919, and sealed on the 15th day of August, 1919, by the Governing Body of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Whereas the President and Scholars, being the Governing Body of Corpus Christi College, in the University of Oxford, did, under the provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, on the 24th day of May, 1919, at a General Meeting specially summoned for the purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, make a Statute amending Statutes of the College, Clauses 20 and 77 (3) and (4):

Now, therefore, the President and Scholars, being the Governing Body of Corpus Christi College, in the University of Oxford, do humbly submit the above-mentioned amending Statute to His Majesty the King in Council, and pray that He will be pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare His approval of the same.

Instead of Clause 20 (d) of the Statutes made for Corpus Christi College, Oxford, by the University of Oxford Commissioners, and approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882, and instead of the alterations made in the same Clause of the Statutes by the College, and approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on June 24th, 1885, the following Clause shall be substituted:—

Clause 20 (d). The stipend of an Assistant Tutor shall be not less than £100 per annum, nor more than £200 per annum, at the time of his first appointment. This stipend may be increased annually by a sum not exceeding £50 per annum, but it shall not during the first ten years of his tenure of office exceed £300 per annum. After an Assistant Tutor has completed 10 years' service of the College the College may, with his assent, increase his income on such conditions and to such extent as it may decide, provided always that the income which he draws from the College as Assistant Tutor shall never exceed £600 per annum in addition to his emoluments as a Fellow; and provided that, when the stipend of an Assistant Tutor exceeds £500 per annum, the payments made to an Assistant Tutor by way of stipends shall be conditional on his giving his whole time to the educational work of the College, and not accepting or undertaking, without the consent of the College, any office or educational work elsewhere, which is, in their judgment incompatible with the full performance of his work for the College. The stipend of an Assistant Tutor shall for the first ten years of his tenure of office be paid one-half out of the Tuition Fund and one-half out of the revenues of the College. Should the College after that period has expired decide to increase his income, it may, if it so wish, provide for that increase out of the revenues of the College. Nor shall an Assistant Tutor whose stipend has been advanced beyond £500 per annum be eligible for re-appointment after thirty-two years have elapsed from the time of this increase.

In Clause 20 (b) after the words "an Assistant Tutor may be reappointed by the President for any further period not exceeding seven years, and so from time to time subject as aforesaid to the approval of the College," the following words shall be added "unless the College has in the meantime increased his income after ten years' service in the manner provided by Clause 20 (d), in which case his re-appointment shall rest with the College."

In Clause 77 (3) and after the word "payable," the following words shall be added "but not the additional charges created for Assistant Tutors under Clause 20 as approved by His Majesty King George the Fifth in Council on 1919" ["1920."]

In Clause 77 (4) (b) B, instead of the words "or Senior Scholarships under Clause 35," substitute the words "or the additional charges created for Assistant Tutors under Clause 20 as approved by His Majesty King George the Fifth in Council on 1919" ["1920."]
