Civil Service Commission,

September 5, 1919.

Notice is hereby given, that upon a special recommendation from the Postmaster-General, and with the assent of the Treasury, Messrs. Herbert Buckland, Harold Ebenezer King, and John Orbell, having served as Clerks of the Second Division, have been promoted to Examinerships in the Accountant-General's Department of the General Post Office, with special certificates granted by the Civil Service Commissioners.

Civil Service Commission,

September 5, 1919.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

Temporary (Reconstruction) Regulations for the selection of Male Clerks in the Employment and Irish Departments of the Ministry of Labour.

1. AGE.—The limits of age for this situation are 19 and 24, and candidates must be of the prescribed age at the date of their qualifying examination.

2. NATIONALITY.—A candidate must be a natural-born British subject, and the son of a father also a natural-born British subject; provided that exception to the latter condition may be made in the case of candidates who have served in His Majesty's Armed Forces during the War.

3. MILITARY SERVICE.—Candidates must have served in His Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces.

4. HEALTH AND CHARACTER.—Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. APPLICATION.—Candidates must make application on the appropriate form, which may be obtained from the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, 6, Burlington Gardens, London, W. 1.

6. If the number of candidates greatly exceeds the number of vacancies, the Commissioners may reduce that number by selecting, on a consideration of the application forms, a sufficient number of the best qualified, and only admitting those so selected to the qualifying examination. In making this selection particular regard will be had to the candidates' educational record.

7. QUALIFYING EXAMINATION.—Those candidates who on their application forms and any necessary inquiries appear to the Civil Service Commissioners to be eligible, or those who are selected in accordance with the preceding clause, will undergo a qualifying examination in the following subjects:—

English,
Arithmetic,
General Knowledge,

and those whom the Civil Service Commissioners judge to attain a suitable standard will be passed. No candidate will be allowed more than one attempt at the qualifying examination.

8. COMPETITIVE SELECTION.—Candidates who pass the qualifying examination will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board. Before candidates recommended by the Selection Board are appointed, the Civil Service Commissioners must be satisfied that they satisfy all the conditions laid down in these Regulations.

9. A proportion of the vacancies under these Regulations will be reserved for men disabled in the war who are physically fit for ordinary clerical duties.

10. WARNING.—Any attempt on the part of the candidate to enlist support for his application through Members of Parliament, or other influential persons, will disqualify him for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work whether at school, at the university, in the Forces, or otherwise.

11. FEE.—Every candidate is required to pay a fee of two shillings and sixpence, payable when the application form is sent in.
