

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The appointed day shall be the first day of October, 1919, in the case of the following paragraphs of the said Act, namely:—

(a) Paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the Act, which relates to the powers of the Board of Education with respect to attending to the health of expectant mothers and nursing mothers, and of children who have not attained the age of 5 years, and are not in attendance at schools recognised by the Board of Education; and

(b) Paragraph (f) of the same sub-section, which relates to powers of supervising the administration of Part I. of the Children Act, 1908, heretofore exercised by the Secretary of State.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, (Date of Commencement) Order (No. 2), 1919.

Clive Wigram,
Colonel.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 22nd day of September, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891," His Majesty the King is authorized, by Order in Council, to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular Officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees:

And whereas it is expedient that the tables of fees, as now fixed by "The Consular Fees (General) Order in Council, 1906," "The China (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1906," and "The Japan (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1906," should in certain respects be amended:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Act, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Fees (Amendment) Order in Council, 1919."

2. The following fee is hereby established, and shall be deemed to be substituted for Fee No. 75 in Part II of the Table of Fees annexed respectively to "The Consular Fees (General) Order in Council," "The China (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1906," and "The Japan (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1906":—

"75. Visa of a passport valid for a single journey, five shillings (5s.).

"Ditto, valid for more than a single journey, one pound (£1.)."

3. In all copies of the Orders in Council referred to in the preceding articles which may be printed after the commencement of this Order, the fee directed by this Order to be varied in the tables of fees annexed to the said Orders shall be thus varied.

And the Right Honourable Arthur James Balfour, O.M., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions, herein.

Clive Wigram,
Colonel.
