

sary to institute, and will be required to undergo a period of probation for two years at a College or University in the United Kingdom approved by the Secretary of State. Selected candidates will be entitled to free passages to and from the United Kingdom and will be paid an allowance at the rate of £200 sterling per annum during the period of probation, subject to good conduct. At the end of this period of probation they will be tested by the Civil Service Commissioners, or by an authority in India specially empowered in this behalf, in Indian Law and Languages, and in any other subjects which may be prescribed, and in riding. They will not be appointed to the Indian Civil Service until they have been certified to have fulfilled these tests.

10. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through persons of influence will disqualify him for appointment. Spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not themselves acquainted with the candidate's work at school, or at the University, or otherwise, will be disregarded.

Recruitment in United Kingdom.

For Rule 5 of the Rules of 7th January, 1919, relating to the appointment of candidates who have served in H.M.'s Forces during the War which stands as follows:—

"5. Every candidate must have received continuous and systematic education of a high type until at least the age of 18, and must produce satisfactory evidence that if he has not received University education, he would have been justified in proceeding from school to a University with a view to taking high honours"

it is proposed to substitute the following rule:—

"5. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have received whole-time continuous and systematic education up to the age of 18, or to the date of entering H.M.'s Forces, whichever is the earlier, and must also produce satisfactory evidence that if they have not received University education, they would have been justified in proceeding from school to a University with a view to taking high honours."

On account of urgency the Secretary of State for India in Council has, under section 2 of the Statute 56 and 57 Victoria, ch. 66, made the above rules to come into operation forthwith as provisional rules to continue in force until rules have been made in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of that Act.

Copies of the foregoing new Rules and of the Form of Application referred to in the Rules for recruitment in India may be obtained from the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office, S.W. 1.
