

ences to the Board of Trade shall be deemed to refer to the Lieutenant-Governor.

In Section I. (1) (a) for the word "they" there shall be substituted the words "the Lieutenant-Governor, with the approval of the Secretary of State for the Home Department," and after the words "maximum prices" there shall be added the words "provided that the approval of the Secretary of State for the Home Department shall not be necessary for any Orders to the same effect as Orders made by the Board of Trade for Great Britain, and limited in duration to such time as the Order of the Board of Trade remains in force."

2. After the words "on summary conviction" there shall be added the words "before a High Bailiff or two justices."

3. In Section 1 (10) and in Section 3 for the words "United Kingdom," there shall be substituted the words "Isle of Man."

4. For Section 2 (2) (a) the following proviso shall be substituted:—

(a) Every regulation so made shall be laid before Tynwald as soon as may be after it is made, and if a resolution of Tynwald is passed at the next sitting of Tynwald after the sitting at which such regulation has been laid before Tynwald disapproving of such regulation, the same shall be annulled, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

5. Section 6 of the said Act shall not apply to the Isle of Man.

6. In Section 7 (1) the words "to an amount not exceeding seventy-five thousand pounds" shall be omitted, and for the word "Parliament" there shall be substituted the word "Tynwald."

In Section 7 (3) for the word "Exchequer" there shall be substituted the words "General Revenue of the Isle of Man."

7. For Section 8 (2) there shall be substituted the following:—

"This Act shall continue in force so long as the Profiteering Act, 1919, shall remain in force in the United Kingdom and no longer."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of November, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Archbishop of Canterbury.
Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Lord Justice Younger.
Sir J. Tudor Walters.
Sir Charles Eliot.

WHEREAS by the Medical Act, 1886, it is provided (amongst other things) that His Majesty may, from time to time, by Order in Council, declare that the Second Part of the said Act shall be deemed, on and after a day to be named in such Order, to apply to any British Possession which, in the opinion of His Majesty, affords to the Registered Medical Practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said British Possession as to His Majesty may seem just; and that from and after the day named in such Order in Council such British Possession shall be deemed to be a British Possession to which the said Act applies, within the meaning of the said Second Part thereof, but that until such Order in Council has been made in respect of any British Possession the said Second Part of the said Act shall not be deemed to apply to any such Possession:

And whereas by the Medical Act (1886) Amendment Act, 1905, it is provided that for the purposes of the Medical Act, 1886, where any part of a British Possession is under a Central and also under a Local Legislature, His Majesty may, if He thinks fit, by Order in Council, declare that the part which is under the Local Legislature shall be deemed a separate British Possession:

And whereas the Province of Alberta, in the Dominion of Canada, is under a Central and also under a Local Legislature:

And whereas the said Province of Alberta affords, in His Majesty's opinion, to the Registered Medical Practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Province as to His Majesty seem just:

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order and declare that the Province of Alberta, in the Dominion of Canada, shall be deemed a separate British Possession, and that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be deemed, as from the date of this Order, to apply to the said Province of Alberta.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of November, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Archbishop of Canterbury.
Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby
Lord Justice Younger.
Sir J. Tudor Walters.
Sir Charles Eliot.

WHEREAS it is, among other things, enacted by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, that the Legislature of any British Possession may by any Act or Ordinance, confirmed by His Majesty in Council, repeal wholly or in part any provisions of the said Act (other than those of the third part thereof which relate to emigrant ships) relating to ships registered in that Possession, but that any such Act or Ordinance shall not take effect until the approval of His Majesty has been proclaimed in the Possession or until such time thereafter as may be fixed by the Act or Ordinance for the purpose:

And whereas it is also enacted by the said Act that the Legislature of a British Possession may by any Act or Ordinance regulate the coasting trade of that British Possession, subject in every case to the following conditions:—

(a) The Act or Ordinance shall contain a suspending clause providing that the Act or Ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty's pleasure thereon has been publicly signified in the British possession in which it has been passed.