SATURDAY, 29 NOVEMBER, 1919.

War Office,
29th November, 1919.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the following awards to the undermentioned Officers, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the field:—

AWARDED THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

Maj. Henry Whitten Hickie, 84th Punjabis, I.A. (BLACK SEA)

By his skilful handling of a tactical situation at Shusha on the 4th June, 1919, he enabled one company of the 84th Punjabis to be interposed, with very slight loss, between considerable forces of Tartars and Armenians engaged in a faction fight. To carry this out he walked under heavy rifle fire from the Armenian trenches to the Tartar positions, showing great coolness and resource

Capt. Norman Henry Prendergast, Queen Victoria's Own Corps of Guides, attd. North Waziristan Militia, I.A. (INDIA)

He has led detachments of his corps gallantly on all operations, especially on 27th

May, 1919, at Miranshah, and has always shown high soldierly qualities. The fact that practically the whole of his corps has remained loyal is chiefly due to his personal influence and power of command.

AWARDED A BAR TO THE MILITARY CROSS.

Capt. Norman Burgan, M.C., 2/11th Gurkha Rifles, I.A. (INDIA)

He commanded the leading company of his battalion in the attack on Khargali Ridge on 11th May, 1919, with great courage and determined leadership. By his dash and rapidity of movement in seizing the centre of the position he enabled other portions of the battalion to reach the hostile gun emplacements, resulting in the capture of four guns with ammunition and horses.

(M.C. gazetted 11th January, 1919.)

Lt. (A./Capt.) Geoffrey Pigot, M.C. 1/19th Punjabis, I.A. (BLACK SEA)

For gallantry in action on Bahram Ali front on 16th January, 1919. By his prompt action and able disposition of the advanced British troops, of which he was in command, he enabled an attack by the enemy in overwhelming numbers to be held off till reinforcements arrived. His coolness and decision throughout the action inspired confidence in all ranks.

(M.C. gazetted 12th September, 1919.)

AWARDED THE MILITARY CROSS.

Lt. (A./Capt.) Robert Christian Anderson, 1st Bn., 76th Punjabis, I.A. (INDIA)

He commanded Jandola Post in a state of siege from May 28th to June 9th 1919. He led the siege from May 28th to June 9th, 1919. His fine example inspired confidence in his men, many of whom were young Mussulman soldiers, and held his post in good order till relieved.

T./Lt. (A./Capt.) Ernest Frank Bugler, 35th Sikhs, I.A. (INDIA)

For conspicuous gallantry on 17th May, 1919, at Dakka. Several times during the fight he collected and got forward parties of our men who had become leaderless. He directed fire on to parties of the enemy who were holding up our advance. He assisted in the removal of wounded, continually exposing himself whilst doing so to a very heavy fire. All through the attack he set a very fine example to the men.

Lt. Frederick William Farmer Card, 1st D. Gds. (INDIA)

For marked gallantry on 16th May, 1919, at Dakka. He handled his troops with marked gallantry and ability throughout the retirement. When the charge was ordered the situation was so pressing that there was no time for a proper deployment. He gave the order for the nearest men to gallop, and, without waiting for them to get into formation, rode out far ahead of them straight towards the enemy, whom he attacked with the greatest gallantry.

Lt. (A./Capt.) Stewart Dudley, 27th Light Cavalry, I.A. (INDIA)

By the bold leading of his squadron he delivered a decisive defeat to the enemy on 31st May, 1919, at Murtaza. He personally disposed of six of the enemy himself. The moral effect of this charge was great, and some 150 of the enemy were killed or wounded. He did fine work.

Lt. Reginald Leonard Haine, V.C., H.A.C., attd. 35th Sikhs, I.A. (INDIA)

For conspicuous gallantry on 17th May, 1919, at Dakka. On many occasions during the fight near the summit of the hill he did everything in his power to collect the men for an attack on the enemy entrenches on the top in face of very heavy fire. When it was decided to retire and take up a position further down the hill, he collected all the men he could gather, and, before descending, assisted in getting all the wounded away.

Capt. Frank Hatton, 2nd Bn., N. Staff. R. (INDIA)

He commanded the leading company of the N. Staffs. Regt. in their attack on 11th May, 1919, at Khargali. His coolness and courage throughout the advance went far in enabling his company to arrive within a few yards of the enemy's trenches before our artillery lifted. His example of courage and devotion to duty at the most critical period of the day was undoubtedly of the very greatest value.

T./Lt. Edward Victor Horseman, Worc. R., attd. 2nd Bn., N. Staff. R. (INDIA)

For marked gallantry and able leadership on 11th May, 1919, at Khargali. He commanded the first platoon of the leading company in its attack on the first objective. He led the way into the enemy's trenches, shooting down three of the enemy personally. Though wounded, he continued to command his platoon. He was also in command of the platoons which were attacked near Jamrud on the 9th May, 1919, when they beat off the enemy.

Capt. John Sydney Lethbridge, R.E., attd. 57th Coy., Sappers and Miners, I.A. (INDIA)

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Thal, 27th May-2nd June, 1919. During the siege he was untiring in helping all units to improve their defences. He improvised a fresh hospital, and showed great energy throughout, working for the most part under shell and sniping fire.

Lt. Thomas Ivor Stevenson, K.R.R.C., Spec. Res., attd. 2/8th Gurkha Rif., I.A. (INDIA)

For good leadership and conspicuous gallantry during the withdrawal to camp from Orange Patch Ridge on 15th May, 1919. The enemy pressed the retirement heavily, and, being without signallers, he went from one position to another under continual fire and personally arranged the retirement of each party of his force. The retirement was carried out most successfully.

Lt. Wilfred Charles Tungate, I.A.R.O., attd. 1/9th Gurkha Rif., I.A. (INDIA)

On the 17th May, 1919, on the attack on the Ridge he led a party with the greatest gallantry to within twenty yards of the summit, and maintained himself there unsupported in the face of greatly superior forces for many hours. When eventually reinforced, he and his party were the first on the summit.

Lt. John Leslie Waggett, 1st D. Gds. (INDIA)

For conspicuous gallantry on 16th May, 1919, at Dakka. He was in command of two troops which were sent to guard the left flank. The enemy made determined efforts to work round this flank, and was only prevented by the skill with which he handled his command. The successful withdrawal of the centre and right were in a large measure due to his courage and initiative. He subsequently played a prominent part in the charge.

SOUTH AFRICAN FORCE.

T./2nd Lt. Ernest Carter, M.M., 1st Bn., S. Afr. Infy. (France).

His behaviour was most outstanding during the action west of Bouchavasnes on 24th March, 1918, and inspired his men. His courage and leadership contributed materially to the stubbornness of the defence, and the defeat of numerous hostile attacks. He was eventually wounded while taking men across the open under close range machine-gun fire, to put out a defensive flank.

T./2nd Lt. Gordon Cuthbert Curtis, 1st Bn., S. Afr. Infy. (France).

During the fighting east of Hendicourt on 22nd March, 1918, he displayed great courage and resource. He was in command of a very extended length of trench, and by his able and determined leadership beat back numerous enemy attacks. By altering his dispositions as occasion demanded he stopped several attempts of the enemy to envelope his right flank.

Temp. Lt. William Frederick Faulds, V.C., 1st Bn., S. Afr. Infy. (France).

In the retirement from the line east of Hendicourt, 22nd March, 1918, he was commanding one of the platoons which formed the rear guard. He handled his men most ably, and exposed himself freely. Though the enemy pressed hard, he, by his fearless and able leadership, checked them, and enabled the remainder of the battalion to withdraw with slight losses. He was wounded on the 24th.

T./2nd Lt. Thomas Garstang, 2nd Bn., S. Afr. Infy. (France).

During the operations 21/24th March, 1918, he set a splendid example to his men, exposing himself continually to the hottest fire. Numerous encircling movements by the enemy were frustrated by his alertness and good leadership. His behaviour throughout was of a very high order.

His Majesty the KING has directed that the award of the Military Cross to Lieutenant Cuthbert Arthur Quin, 1st Battalion, The Royal Fusiliers, which was gazetted on the 16th August, 1917, shall be cancelled and his name erased from the Register in consequence of his having been dismissed the service by sentence of a General Court Martial.
