

has been altered the register in force shall be deemed to be the register or registers for the unit or units any part of which is comprised in the new unit."

2. The following paragraph shall be inserted at the end of rule 2:—

"Where a person is qualified for registration as a parliamentary elector in respect of more than one qualification and any entry in respect of him has been removed as a duplicate, the registration officer shall not be required to include in subsequent electors lists any entry which has been so removed if the elector remains qualified for registration as a parliamentary elector in respect of the qualification for which he is so registered in the register in force."

3. The following rule shall be substituted for rule 43:—

"43. As respects constituencies in Great Britain the Spring Register for 1920 shall come into force on the 15th day of May, nineteen hundred and twenty, and shall remain in force, unless otherwise ordered, until the 15th day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty, and in connection with that register the registration dates shall be the dates specified in the third column of Part I. of Schedule X. to this Order."

4. The following rule shall be substituted for rule 45:—

"45. The documents mentioned in Part II. of Schedule X. to this Order shall, for the purposes of the Spring Register for 1920, be kept published until the dates specified in the second column of that Schedule."

5. The third register prepared under the Act shall remain in force until the 15th day of May, nineteen hundred and twenty, and accordingly in rule 43A the 15th day of May shall be substituted for the 15th day of April.

6. The following rules shall be inserted after rule 34:—

"34A. It shall be the duty of the registration officer to transmit to the Minister of Health, in addition to the copy of the register required to be transmitted by rule 27 in the First Schedule to the Act, a summary of the contents of the register, at such times and in such form and giving such particulars as the Minister of Health may require.

"This rule shall not apply to Scotland."

"34B. Where any provision of this Order is repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the rules set out in the First Schedule to the Act, such rules shall be deemed to be amended in such manner as to bring the same into conformity with this Order."

7. The following form shall be substituted for No. XI. in the "Forms for England and Wales" set out in Schedule I., being the form of register for England and Wales:—

XI.—FORM OF REGISTER.

Constituency of Registration Unit
 Polling District

The register contains the names in [alphabetical] [street] order of all persons entitled to vote as parliamentary and as local government electors.

The Index letters in columns 2 (a) headed "Parliamentary" or 2 (b) headed "Local Govt." of the register show the nature of the qualification of an elector, as follows:—

- R. = Residence qualification.
- B.P. = Business premises qualification.
- O. = Occupation qualification.
- H.O. = Qualification through husband's occupation.
- N.M. = Naval or military voter.

The entry of the appropriate index letter or letters against a name in the column 2 (a) headed "Parliamentary" indicates that the elector is a parliamentary elector, and the entry of the appropriate letter or letters against a name in the column 2 (b) headed "Local Govt." indicates that the elector is a local government elector. Where no index letter is entered in one or other of those columns against a name, the elector is not entitled to the franchise to which the column relates:

NOTE.—† Persons against whose names the mark † is placed are not entitled to vote in respect of that entry at Elections of County Councillors.

‡ Persons against whose names the mark ‡ is placed are not entitled to vote in respect of that entry at Elections of Rural District Councillors or Guardians.

§ Persons against whose names the mark § is placed are not entitled to vote in respect of that entry in the case of a Borough, Metropolitan Borough or Urban District at Elections for Borough or District Councillors as the case may be and in the case of a Parish at Elections for Parish Councillors or at Parish Meetings.

* Persons against whose names the mark * is placed will vote at another polling place at Parliamentary Elections.

^a Persons against whose names the letter a is placed are absent voters.
