Milan, March 7. The Duke of Savoy arrived here on Friday last, being received several miles out of Town by our Governor the Marquis de Leganez, and conducted to the Palace, where an Apartment was prepared for him; His Royal Highness had several Conferences with our Governor about the Affairs of the War, and went hence on Monday to Loretto. The Forces of this State are ordered to be in a readiness to march by the end of this Month.

Vicenza, March 12. The Duke of Savoy is expected back in 7 or 8 days from his Journey to Milan and Loretto. One of our Partisan took five days ago several Mules, laden with Provisions for the Garrison of Pignerol.

Vicenza, March 14. The Treaty between the Emperor and the Elector of Summer is concluded, by which his Electoral Highness engages himself to send 4000 Foot more to the Assistance of his Imperial Majesty in Hungary, and his Troops are to continue there 3 years if the Emperor desires them so long; This Matter being thus regulated, the Elector will in few days return to Dresden, and be here again towards the end of the next Month, in his way to Hungary, where he is to Command the Imperial Army the next Campaign. Prince Lewis of Baden will shortly return to Germany; and Prince Eugene of Savoy to Piedmont.

Cologne, March 23. A Battalion of Bavarian Soldiers, who have had their Winter Quarters in Guelderland, passed by this place yesterday in their way to Bavaria, where another Battalion is to be added to them, and then they are to continue their march together towards Piedmont, in order to joyn the other German Forces in the Service of the Duke of Savoy. Besides the new Levies that have been already made this Winter for the Landgrave of Hesse, and which are compleated, his Highness has given our Commissions for raising another Regiment of Dragoons, so that he will have a greater Body of Troops in the Field this year than he has yet had since this War.

Hamburg, March 23. The Swedes are Arming out a Squadron of Men of War against the Summer; The like is doing by the Danes; and both have Officers here to raise Seamen; In the mean time the Matters in Difference between them on account of the Duke of Holsheim-Gottorp, are in Treaty, and all sides seem willing amicably to compose them, but the doing of it will probably take up some time. They raise here likewise Seamen for the Emperor to serve on the Danube against the Turks.

Paris, March 23. The Letters from Toulon say, the French Fleet did not sail from the Isles of Hieres till the 16th of this Month, the Wind having been against them several days, and that they took their Course towards the Streights-Mouth. They write from Brest of the 16th, that the Marquis de Nivard was still with his Squadron in that Port, but thought to sail about the 20th. An Edict has been published here, by which 500 Persons within this Kingdom are made Gentlemen, paying each 6000 Livres, which will raise 3 Millions; and another Edict is come out, creating 5 new Prelidens in the Duchy of Burgundy, which Places are to be sold. Brussels, March 25. All necessary Preparations are making here for an early Campaign; The Troops have Orders to be in a readiness to march, and the Officers of the Artillery are to be at Malines in few days, where they are to receive further Directions. The Prince de Vaudemons intends to go from hence the next week to Ghent. Two Dutch Regiments are ordered to march from hence, and two from Tilmont to quarter in Namur. We have an account from Offend, that 3 Dunkirke Privateers of 10 or 12 Guns each, came under Dutch Colours, among the Transport Ships that went lately for England, and in the night boarded and took 3 of them, who had on board several Companies of Foot, and carried them to Dunkirke.

Hague, March 27. N. S. The Letters from Newport of the 25th Instant say, the French Troops were retired from the Coast, leaving only the ordinary Garrisons in Dunkirke and Calais; and that the late King James was gone from thence towards Lille; Some said he would return to Paris; but others doubted it. A Treaty is said to be on foot with the Elector of Cologne about 6000 Men which he is willing to put into the Service of the Allies. The Venetian Ambassadors are still at Amsterdam. The Prince of Nassau, Stadtholder of Friseland, lies dangerously ill.

Margate, March 19.
