SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES OR GRATUITIES FOR MASTERS AND DEATH GRATUITIES FOR THEIR LEGAL PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES OR DEPENDANTS.

We, the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College, being the Governing Body of Winchester College, do hereby, in exercise of the powers of the Public Schools Act, 1868, and of the Acts amending the same, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, resolve and enact as follows:—

A Statute concerning superannuation allowances or gratuities for masters and death gratuities for their legal personal representatives or dependants.

1. The Warden and Fellows shall have power to make such provision as they shall from time to time think fit for the granting and paying, out of the income of the College, in all such cases as they shall deem proper, of (i) superannuation allowances or gratuities to Masters upon their ceasing to hold office, and (ii) death gratuities to the legal personal representatives or dependants of Masters who shall die in office: such grants and payments to be on lines analogous to, but not necessarily identical with, those laid down in the School Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1918.

2. The Warden and Fellows shall also have power to create and maintain out of the income of the College, in such manner as they shall from time to time think fit, a Fund out of which the said grants and payments may be made, and to administer the said Fund in accordance with such Regulations as they shall from time to time make for the administration thereof.

3. The powers conferred by this Statute shall be in addition to the powers conferred by Statute XIV of the Statutes of Winchester College approved by His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council on the 24th day of October, 1904.

4. This Statute shall come into force immediately upon the approval thereof by His Majesty the King in Council.

13th February, 1920.*

Notice is hereby given, under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that it is proposed by the Rule Committee of the Supreme Court to make the following Rules:—

1. The following new Rules shall be inserted after Order LXV., Rule 10a:—

Order LXV., Rule 10b.—The total in any Bill of Costs of the fees prescribed by this Order (as distinct from payments) shall in respect of business done in any cause or matter in the Supreme Court after the 31st day of August, 1919, be increased by 33- $\frac{1}{3}$ per centum, and such increase shall be allowed upon any taxation of costs in respect of any such business as well between Party and Party as between Solicitor and Client, and in taxations under or pursuant to the Solicitors Act, 1843.

This Rule shall apply to all references to arbitration and to all proceedings on the Crown side, and to all proceedings assigned to the Crown Office Department, and to all criminal proceedings in the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice.

The increase hereby authorised shall not affect the question whether a bill of costs taxed is or is not less by one-sixth part than the bill delivered, sent or left.

Provided that this Rule shall not (a) affect the power to direct payment of a sum in lieu of costs under Order 65, Rule 23, or the power to allow a fixed sum for costs under Order 65, Rule 27 (38), or a gross sum under Order 65, Rule 27 (38a); or (b) apply to bills of costs which have, at the date on which this Rule comes into operation, already been delivered to the client sought to be charged therewith, or to the person chargeable therewith or liable therefor, or to bills then already taxed and certified or allowed.

Order LXV., Rule 10a, is hereby revoked, except in respect of business done before the 1st day of September, 1919, and except as regards those bills of costs which are excluded from the operation of this Rule by the last preceding proviso to this Rule.

2. These Rules may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (Solicitors' Remuneration Rules), 1920.

Copies of the above draft Rules may be obtained from H.M. Stationery Office.

Notice is further given, that the said Rule Committee has made Provisional Rules, to come into operation on the 16th February, 1920, in the same terms as the above draft Rules, and to continue in force until Rules have been made in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893.
