

*Ministry of Labour,
Whitehall, S.W. 1.*

13th February, 1920.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on him by the Trade Boards Acts, 1909 and 1918, the Minister of Labour is pleased to establish a Trade Board for the Stamped or Pressed Metal-ware Trade in Great Britain as specified in the Trade Boards (Stamped or Pressed Metal-ware) Order, 1919, namely:—

The manufacture from metals (other than precious metals) by the processes of cold stamping or cold pressing (including cutting or piercing) of cabinet fittings, window fittings, curtain accessories, stationers' sundries, drapers' sundries, fittings for gas or electric light, fittings for suit-cases or handbags or purses, buckles, eyelets, ferrules, labels, collar studs, tie-clips, thimbles, photograph frames, stamped chains, bells, fancy nails (excluding the shanks), parts of safety razors (excluding the blades), parts of braces or suspenders, corset steels or busks, whistles, tin-openers, medals, or any similar articles or metal parts of such articles;

including:—

(a) the operations of annealing, hardening, barrelling, polishing, bronzing, nickelling, lacquering, japanning, non-vitreous enamelling, tinning or assembling where these operations are carried on in association with or in conjunction with the manufacture of such stamped or pressed metal articles;

(b) the operations of carding, boxing, packeting, labelling, weighing, packing, warehousing or despatching where these operations are incidental to or appertaining to the manufacture of such stamped or pressed metal articles;

but excluding:—

(a) the operations specified in the Trade Boards (Hollowware) Order, 1913;

(b) the making of buttons or any operations incidental thereto;

(c) the making of coffin furniture or any operations incidental thereto;

(d) the making of pins, hairpins, hooks and eyes, hair-curlers, snap fasteners or safety pins or any operations incidental thereto;

(e) the making of steel pens and the making of stationers' metal sundries or other similar metal articles when carried on as a subsidiary branch of work in association with or in conjunction with the making of steel pens, so as to provide a common or interchangeable form of employment for the workers;

(f) The minting of coinage of the realm;

(g) the process of hand-embossing.

In accordance with the Regulations with respect to the Constitution and Proceedings of the above-mentioned Trade Board, dated 13th day of February, 1920, the Trade Board shall consist of:—
