

and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), duly enacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows of University College, being the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for the purpose and holden on Saturday, the 13th day of December, 1919; and further by adjournments on Thursday, the 15th, and Friday, the 23rd of January, 1920, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present and voting and submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

Whereas it is expedient to render the Bye-Fellowship in the College, known as the Stowell Civil Law Fellowship, and hitherto regarded merely as a Prize-Fellowship, also available for the purposes of an official Fellowship charged with educational duties, and to assimilate it still further in status and emoluments to the ordinary Fellowships in the College, while maintaining the general intentions of the said Mary Anne Viscountess Sidmouth as expressed in a certain indenture, bearing date June 26th, 1837, namely, to record the name of her father, William Lord Stowell, in connection with the Civil Law and with the University of Oxford.

Now, therefore, we, the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University, commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, in virtue of the powers conferred upon us by section 54 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and by Statute XI. of the Statutes of the College, and by clause 12 of the said Ordinance in relation to the Stowell Civil Law Fellowship, do alter and amend the said Ordinance and also Statute III., clauses 17 and 23, in the following manner:—

1. In clause 2 of the Ordinance in relation to the Bye-Fellowship of the foundation of the Right Honourable Mary Anne Viscountess Sidmouth set forth in Appendix II. to the College Statutes we insert before the words "No person" the following words: "Except as hereinafter provided in the case of a Fellow elected under clause 3 of this Ordinance."

2. We strike out all the words of clause 3 and substitute the following words: "Whenever the Bye-Fellowship be or fall vacant, then, if the Master and Fellows of the College at any General Meeting shall by resolution declare that it is expedient to elect as Stowell Civil Law Fellow a person eminently qualified to be a Lecturer, or Praelector, or Tutor, and to give instruction in the College on the Civil Law and the subjects recognized in the examinations conducted under the supervision of the Board of the Faculty of Law in the University, they shall thereupon proceed, as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, to elect such a person as Stowell Civil Law Fellow, provided that the election shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Statute III., clauses 11 and 19; and the person so elected shall be elected for a period of seven years, and shall be re-eligible thereafter from time to time for such period not exceeding seven years as the Master and Fellows shall on each occasion determine, and shall receive a fixed emolument (including the income arising from Viscountess Sidmouth's endowment) of £200 per annum free of income tax, as Fellow, together with such stipend from the Tuition Fund, as Lecturer, or Praelector, or Tutor, as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine, and shall be governed in respect of vacation of the Fellowship, Residence, Service and Pension, by the provisions of Statute III., clauses 13 to 18, 20, 21 and Statute IV., clause 2, and not by the subsequent provisions of this Ordinance.

3. We amend clause 4 by inserting before the words, "the intellectual qualifications," the words here following: "Whenever the Bye-Fellowship shall fall vacant, if within a period of six months the Master and Fellows shall have passed no such resolution, or if at any General Meeting they shall declare by resolution that the Bye-Fellowship shall for the ensuing election be regarded as a Prize-Fellowship, then an election thereto shall be made by the Master and Fellows as soon thereafter as conveniently may be and on such day as they at any of their meetings shall appoint; and notice of the intended election shall be given by the said Master, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election."

4. In Statute III., clause 17, after the word "Tutor" we insert the words: "and likewise any Stowell Civil Law Fellow, if elected, or re-elected, under clause 3 of the Ordinance set forth in Appendix II. to these Statutes."

5. In Statute III., clause 23, at the end, we add the words: "except as expressly provided in clause 3 of the said Ordinance."
