

be elected by the members present, shall preside:

(3) The Commissioners shall appoint a secretary of the committee who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Commissioners:

(4) The committee shall meet at such times, and at such places, and notice of meetings shall be given in such manner as the chairman may, with the approval of the Commissioners, determine:

Provided that the committee shall meet at least once in each quarter:

(5) At a meeting of the committee eight shall be a quorum:

(6) No act or proceeding of the committee shall be questioned on account of any vacancy in their body:

(7) The committee may for special purposes, approved by the Commissioners, appoint sub-committees of their members, and, within the limits approved by the Commissioners, may call into consultation, for the purpose of giving expert advice, such persons as the chairman may think fit, so, however, that no expenditure shall be involved:

(8) If a member of the committee is absent from the meetings of the committee for six months consecutively, except for some reason approved by the Commissioners, his office shall become vacant:

(9) The committee shall report to the Commissioners from time to time on matters upon which they have been consulted by the Commissioners:

(10) The committee shall furnish to the Commissioners, but shall not publish, an annual report of the proceedings of the committee:

(11) Any Commissioner may attend meetings of the committee at the request of the chairman of the committee:

(12) Subject to the provisions contained in this Order, the committee may regulate their own procedure.

3. A sum not exceeding £300 per annum will be allocated to each committee for the payment of travelling expenses to and from meetings, but not of subsistence, of members attending the meetings of the committee, such payments to be vouched for by the chairman or secretary of the committee.

4.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) This Order may be cited as the Forestry (Consultative Committees) Order, 1920.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of March, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Aliens Restriction Act, 1914 (in this Order called the Principal Act), His Majesty was empowered at any time when a state of war might exist between His Majesty and any foreign power, or when it appeared that an occasion of imminent national danger or great emergency had arisen, by Order in Council to impose restrictions on aliens:

And whereas in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Principal Act His Majesty in Council has been pleased by the Aliens Order, 1919, to impose certain restrictions on aliens:

And whereas by the Aliens Restriction (Amendment) Act, 1919, the powers so conferred upon His Majesty by the Principal Act have been extended and made exercisable for a period of one year after the 23rd day of December, 1919, not only in the circumstances aforesaid, but at any time, and the Aliens Act, 1905, has been repealed from such date as may be specified by Order in Council, and any such Order may incorporate with or without modification any of the provisions of the Aliens Act, 1905:

And whereas it is provided by the Principal Act that His Majesty may by Order in Council revoke or add to any Order in Council made thereunder:

And whereas it is desirable that the provisions of the said Aliens Order, 1919, should be amended in certain particulars and as so amended should continue in force together with certain provisions of the Aliens Act, 1905, after the termination of the present war, and that a date may be fixed for the repeal of the Aliens Act, 1905:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I.

ADMISSION OF ALIENS.

1.—(1) An alien coming from outside the United Kingdom shall not land in the United Kingdom except with the leave of an immigration officer.

(2) Leave shall not be given to a former enemy alien to land in the United Kingdom except by permission of the Secretary of State.

(3) Leave shall not be given to an alien to land in the United Kingdom unless he complies with the following conditions, that is to say:—

(a) he is in a position to support himself and his dependents;

(b) if desirous of entering the service of an employer in the United Kingdom he produces a permit in writing for his engagement issued to the employer by the Minister of Labour;

(c) he is not a lunatic, idiot, or mentally deficient;

(d) he is not the subject of a certificate given to the immigration officer by a medical inspector that for medical reasons it is undesirable that the alien should be permitted to land;

(e) he has not been sentenced in a foreign country for any extradition crime within the meaning of the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906;

(f) he is not the subject of a deportation order in force under the Principal Act, or any Order in Council thereunder, or of an expulsion order under the Aliens Act, 1905;

(g) he has not been prohibited from landing by the Secretary of State;

(h) he fulfils such other requirements as
