THEIR MAJESTIES' COURTS, 1920.

REGULATIONS.

1. The King and Queen will hold two Courts during the coming season, one in the first week in June and one in the third week in June, for the presentation of ladies to Their Majesties.

2. Ladies who have themselves been presented, and who desire to be summoned to one of these Courts for the purpose of making presentations, are requested to make a written application to the Lord Chamberlain, St. James's Palace, S.W. 1, as soon as possible. The names of the ladies to be presented should be forwarded by the lady who wishes to make the presentations when she sends in her own name.

3. No applications can be received from ladies who wish to be presented. Their names must be forwarded by the ladies who wish to make the presentations.

4. A lady presented for the first time can only present her daughters or daughters-in-law at the Court at which she is presented.

5. Ladies may be accompanied to Court by their husbands if the latter have been presented, but gentlemen do not pass before The King and Queen. Ladies who wish to be accompanied by their husbands should state the fact in their applications, and they should also state if the ladies they desire to present wish to be accompanied by their husbands. Once the summons has been issued, the amending of a summons card in order to include a lady's husband can only be permitted under the most exceptional circumstances.

6. The Dress Regulations are:—Ladies: Court Dress without feathers and trains. Gentlemen: Full Court Dress.

It is urgently requested that all applications will be made strictly in accordance with the above Regulations.
