WALSALL CORPORATION ACT, 1914.

Whereas by Section 1 of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, as extended by the War Emergency Laws (Continuance) Act, 1920, it is provided that where the time within which a duty is to be performed or a power may be exercised under any Special Act is limited, an application may be made to the appropriate Government Department for an Order under the said Act extending that time, but only in cases where the time is due to expire within twelve months of the date of the application, provided that, without prejudice to the making of any further Order, no time shall be extended under any such Order for more than a year:

And whereas by Section 90 of the Walsall Corporation Act, 1914, a local Act, the Walsall Corporation were empowered to apply to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, within two years after the passing of the said Act (namely, the 7th August, 1914) to appoint a Commissioner to make a scheme for the alteration of the wards of the said Borough, and the increase of the number of Councillors of the said Borough in the manner therein provided:

And whereas on the application of the Walsall Corporation an Order was made on the 16th May, 1916, by the Secretary of State for the Home Department extending the time within which an application might be made under the said Section 90 of the Walsall Corporation Act, 1914, for a period of twelve months from the 7th August, 1916; and a further Order was made on the 15th May, 1917, extending such time for a period of twelve months from the 7th August, 1917; and a further Order was made on the 20th April, 1918, extending such time for a period of twelve months from the 7th August, 1918; and a further Order was made on the 7th August, 1919, extending such time for a period of twelve months from the 7th August, 1919:

And whereas I am satisfied that in the circumstances of the case the time in respect of which the said application is made should be further extended:

Now, therefore, I do hereby order that the time within which an application be made under the said Section 90 of the Walsall Corporation Act, 1914, shall be extended for a further period of twelve months from the 7th August, 1920.
