

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of August, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134; of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49; and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 17th day of June, 1920, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134; of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49; and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint Andrew, West Kirby, situate in the Parish of West Kirby, in the County of Chester and in the Diocese of Chester:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Andrew, West Kirby, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Luke, Bishop of Chester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of West Kirby, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Andrew, West Kirby, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, West Kirby.'

"And with the like consent of the said Henry Luke, Bishop of Chester, (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Andrew, West Kirby, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings and burials should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, West Kirby, being:—

"All that part of the Parish of West Kirby, in the County of Chester and in the Diocese of Chester, which is bounded upon the west by the high water mark of ordinary tides upon the sea shore, upon the north-west by the New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Hoose, otherwise Hoylake, upon the north-east by the New Parish of Christ Church, Moreton, upon part of the south-east by the New Parish of Frankby, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-east and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point between Long Rake Farm and Newton Bridge in the middle of the road leading from Woodside Ferry to West Kirby where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Frankby from the said Parish of West Kirby diverges southward from following the middle of the said road, and extending thence first westward and then south-westward along the middle of such road for a distance of 74 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Grange Road, and extending thence first north-westward and then in various directions along the middle of Grange Road for a distance of 46 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Meols Drive and Dee Lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Dee Lane for a distance of 15 chains or thereabouts to its junction with South Parade, and continuing thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of 2½ chains or thereabouts to the high water mark of ordinary tides upon the sea shore."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts:
