

valid in cases where its exercise would defeat the purpose of the original order.

20. Residence of Fellows and Officers.

Any College Officer shall reside in College if a majority of the Master and Fellows are of opinion that his absence would be a cause of injury to the College. Every person, who is fulfilling the duty of residence in College under this Statute, shall sleep in College at least five nights in each week, unless for special reason he shall have been excused by a vote of the Master and Fellows; and if he shall be absent on either of the remaining nights, he shall have a deputy, approved by the Master, and such deputy shall sleep in College. Provided always that a house communicating with the College, and approved by the Master and Fellows shall, for the purposes of this Statute, be deemed to be within the College.

During Full Term at least two Fellows, one of whom shall be either a Tutor or the Dean of College, or in the absence through grave cause of both such officers, a deputy approved by the Master, shall sleep in College. And during that part of the Long Vacation in which members of the College in statu pupillari are allowed to reside, at least one College Officer or Fellow shall sleep in College. The Master and Fellows shall make such provision as may from time to time seem to them expedient for the residence of College Officers or Fellows in College during the other vacations.

21. Distribution of College Revenues.

The revenues of the College shall be applied in the first instance to the payment of the stipends of the officers and scholars of the College, and of whatever may be required to be paid by the Statutes of the College, or by the Statutes of the University, or by the approved customs of the College, or by any lawful ordinance. The remainder shall then be divided among the Master and Fellows in such manner that the Master shall receive twice the amount received by each Fellow receiving a full dividend, the surplus, if any, to be applied to the general purposes of the College, including the formation of a Pension Fund. Provided, however, that the dividend paid to each of the Fellows, exclusive of any pension, shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds (£250.) in any year.

22. Payments for University Purposes.

The College shall pay annually to the University the sum authorized by the Statutes of the University made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, to be levied from the College.

23. Surplus Income.

If at any time it shall appear to the Master and Fellows that the revenues of the College are greater than the amount required to afford to each of the Fellows a dividend of two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) a year, exclusive of rooms and commons but inclusive of all other allowances, they may approve a scheme for increasing the number of Fellowships or Scholarships or Exhibitions, or for providing a fund for granting gratuities to poor and deserving members of the College in statu pupillari, or for applying the surplus in some other way for the benefit of the College or of the University; and the said scheme shall thenceforth have the same force and effect as if it formed part of these Statutes.

24. College Accounts and Audit.

Within fifteen days before or after the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary in every year, the Master, Bursar, Tutor, Steward, and Bailiffs shall render account of all sums received and expended by them respectively on behalf of the College during the year ending at the preceding Michaelmas.

At least six Fellows shall be present at the audit of the said accounts. The accounts shall be audited either by a professional auditor or by the Master and Fellows; in the latter case two Fellows shall be elected to be Auditors, and it shall be their duty in conjunction with the Master or his deputy to examine the said accounts, before the day appointed for the audit, and, if they be found correct, to sign them. The Master or his deputy and the Auditors shall be paid adequate stipends for their trouble.

The Bursar shall deliver up at the end of the audit all receipts, acquittances, and other papers required to verify the accounts, for safe preservation in the College Chest.

The Bursar, Tutor, Steward, and other officers of the College may be required, if the Master and Fellows think fit, before their admission to office, respectively to give security for rendering true accounts and for the payment of the balances, if any, which may remain in their hands at the time of audit.

25. Dinner in Hall and Assignment of Rooms

The Master and Fellows shall be provided with dinner in the Hall at the expense of the College, the cost of such dinner not to exceed a moderate sum determined from time to time by the Master and Fellows. If the Master do not dine in Hall, he shall receive the customary allowance in lieu of commons.

Rooms in College shall be assigned to the Fellows and other members of the College by the Master.

A married Fellow shall not be at liberty to bring his wife or any member of his family to reside or sleep in College unless suitable rooms approved by the Master and Fellows are provided by the College.

26. The Bursar.

When there is a vacancy in the office of Bursar, the Master may, if he think fit, nominate one of the Fellows for a probationary period of three years, and on the expiration of such period the Master and Fellows may confirm the appointment from time to time for such period or periods as may seem to them fit. In the event of the Master declining to nominate, the appointment for the probationary period shall be made by the Master and Fellows not necessarily from among the Fellows.

The Bursar shall be paid a stipend to be determined by the Master and Fellows after his nomination or election.

Provided, however, that if at any time the business of the College shall appear in the judgment of the Master and Fellows to have been badly done or neglected by the Bursar, it shall be lawful for them by a vote passed at a special meeting called for the purpose, in which two-thirds of the whole body concur, to deprive him of his office.

The Bursar shall not let or hire any College lands or buildings above the annual value of £40 without the consent of a majority of the
