

Government Board relating to Liverpool and entitled the Liverpool (Extension) Order, 1913), it became the duty of the Council of the City of Liverpool to petition the King to divide the Allerton, Childwall and Little Woolton Ward of the said City into three Wards;

And whereas a majority of the whole Council of the said City of Liverpool, on the fourth day of February, 1920, in pursuance of the provisions of Section 30 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as amended by Section 2 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1893, agreed to petition and the said Council thereupon petitioned His Majesty that the aforesaid Ward be divided into three Wards (whereby the number of Wards into which the City would be divided would be increased to 39 Wards), and that the existing Councillors for the aforesaid Ward be allocated to the new Wards, one to each Ward:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 26th day of April, 1920, to fix the number of Wards into which the City of Liverpool should be henceforth divided, and to order and direct that the number of the said Wards should be thirty-nine:

And whereas on the 15th day of May, 1920, the Right Honourable Edward Shortt, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did appoint Samuel Pope, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, a Commissioner to prepare a Scheme for determining the boundaries of such Wards, and for apportioning the Councillors of the said Borough among such Wards:

And whereas by Section 30 (5) of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, it is provided that, in case of alteration of Wards, the Commissioner shall so apportion among the altered Wards the Councillors for those Wards as to provide for their continuing to represent as large a number as possible of their former constituents:

And whereas the said Commissioner has accordingly prepared the following Scheme, dated the 30th day of September, 1920:—

4. The said Map is marked "Map of the Wards of the City of Liverpool as altered 1920," and is signed by me as constituting an integral part of this scheme.

5. Subject and except as hereinbefore provided, the boundaries of the other existing Wards of the said City and the number of Councillors respectively apportioned thereto shall remain unaltered.

ARTICLE III.—I do hereby assign, in accordance with the direction contained in subsection 3 (c) (ii) of Section 3 of the said Local Government Board's Provisional Order Confirmation (No. 14) Act, 1913, Alderman James Heald, the Alderman referred to in subsection 1 (b) of Section 3 of the said Act, to the new Childwall Ward, being the Ward which contains the largest number of citizens at the date of this scheme.
