At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of October, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Llanllwchaiarn, in the County of Cardigan; the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Llanidloes, in the County of Montgomery; and the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Watford, Rugby; 10 days' previous Notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made Representations to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new Burial Ground in the Civil Parish of Llanllwchaiarn, in the said County of Cardigan; the Civil Parish of Llanidloes, in the said County of Montgomery; and the Civil Parish of Watford, in the County of Northampton, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that Burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

LLANLLWCHAIARN.—Forthwith and entirely in the Llanllwchaiarn Parish Church, and in the Churchyard attached thereto in the said Parish. Provided that—

(a) In any walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

LLANIDLOES.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Llanidloes and in the Churchyard attached thereto. Provided that—

(a) In any walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(c) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

WATFORD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Watford, Rugby, and in the Churchyard attached thereto. Provided that—

(a) In the vault beneath the Church belonging at the present time to Baron Henley a further burial may be allowed subject to the condition that the person who buries the body in the vault shall within a period of twenty-four hours after the deposit in the vault of the coffin containing the body, cause the coffin to be wholly and permanently embedded in and covered with a layer or layers of good cement concrete, not less in any part than six inches in thickness.

(b) In the earthen graves now existing in the said Churchyard in which the remains of the undermentioned persons are interred a further burial may be allowed in each grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave:—
