A Candidate desiring to offer any of the Subjects 48—60 or Subject 65 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Commissioners of Laboratory training in an institution of University rank. For (46) Astronomy, (47) Statistics, (61) Geography, (62) Physical Anthropology, &c., and (64) Agriculture, other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as a part of the examination.

Extra Numerum Subject.—Candidates may take, in addition to the above, one of the translation papers of Section A, in a language not already taken by them in either section, not more than one of the Scandinavian languages, nor more than one of the three, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, being offered by the same Candidate in Section A or extra numerum; for this 100 marks will be awarded not included in the 800 of Section A or the 1,100 of Section B.

6. From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

Moreover, if a Candidate's handwriting is not easily legible, a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.

7. Application for permission to attend one of these Examinations must be made in the writing of the Candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

8. A fee of £6 will be required from every Candidate attending an examination.

*Civil Service Commission,
November 19, 1920.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING COMPETITIVE
EXAMINATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE
GENERAL AND LEVANT CONSULAR SERVICES
AND TO STUDENT INTERPRETERS IN THE FAR EAST.

1. Candidates will be required to appear before a Board of Selection which will meet at the Office of the Civil Service Commission at 3 p.m. on the second Tuesday in May, and will decide which candidates possess suitable qualifications for entry into the General Levant and Far Eastern branches of the Consular Services in order to enable them to compete at the examination prescribed below. Candidates may appear before this Board at any time after they have attained the age of nineteen.

2. (i.) Candidates must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 24 on the first day of August in the year in which the Examination is held. In reckoning age for competition, candidates may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served in H.M. Forces between the 4th August, 1914, and the 11th November, 1918, except that candidates for the Far East Service must in no case have attained the age of 26 years on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held.

(ii.) Candidates must be unmarried

3. Candidates must be natural-born British subjects, and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions of parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case they can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

4. (i.) The following persons are ineligible, viz.:—

Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service.

(ii.) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only, that is to say:—

(a) Persons actually serving in the Army.

(b) Persons actually serving in the Navy.

(c) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service.

(d) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of more than five years' service.

(e) Persons who have entered upon or completed a course of education or training for the occupation of teacher, on account of which grants are payable from the Exchequer.

No person actually serving in the Army will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Persons comprised in the classes (c), (d) must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination before the commencement of the competition.

Persons comprised in class (e) will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the
