

from such duty to furnish to the Company and to permit the Company to take copies of such lists or extracts therefrom.

2. To exempt the Company from any obligation to supply water, and to make special provision with respect to the supply of water, to various classes of buildings and premises, including workhouses, hospitals, asylums, sanatoriums, garages, stables, &c., and such other classes of premises as the intended Act may prescribe, and to authorize the Company to make, levy and demand special charges for water used in any such buildings or premises as aforesaid.

3. To relieve the Company wholly or in part from any obligations with respect to the laying of mains and communication or service pipes and the supply of water in such events and circumstances as the Bill may define, or to alter those obligations, and to increase the guarantee of aggregate water rates prescribed by section 35 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847.

4. To empower local authorities within the Company's limits of supply to guarantee or enter into contracts with reference to the payment of any periodic or other sum to the Company with respect to the affording of a supply of water, and for those purposes to raise moneys or apply funds under their control.

5. To confer special powers on the Company, and to make provision for and with respect to the laying, repairing, maintaining and renewing of communication pipes and pipes common to the supply of several premises, and whether by agreement with owners and occupiers or otherwise, and whether on public or private premises, and the recovery of the cost thereof from owners and occupiers, and to confer upon persons liable to maintain pipes and apparatus powers of breaking open streets and other property for that purpose, and to empower the Company to construct, lay down and maintain discharge pipes, telephone, telegraph and other posts, wires and apparatus in, on or under any street or other highway within the Company's limits of supply.

6. To empower the Company for any purposes of the Bill, to open, break up, alter, stop up and interfere with any public and private roads, highways, footpaths and bridges within their limits of supply and any work, apparatus or thing in, on or under the same.

7. To authorize the Company to apply their corporate funds and revenues and any of their authorized or unissued capital for all or any of the purposes of the Bill or other purposes of the Company, whether capital, revenue or otherwise, and to repeal or alter any limit on the dividends payable by the Company on all or any capital to be hereafter issued by them.

8. To authorize the Company or their directors to grant pensions and other payments to officers and employees and the widows, families and dependents of such persons, and to make all necessary or convenient arrangements for that purpose.

9. To confer upon the Company all or any powers commonly conferred on water undertakers, and not hereinbefore specifically referred to, and to make provision with respect to the authentication and service of notices, the contents of summonses and the recovery of penalties and demands.

10. The Bill will incorporate all or some of the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, and the Companies Clauses

Acts, with or without amendment, and may exempt the Company from some or all of the provisions of those Acts, and will or may vary or extinguish any rights and privileges which are inconsistent with or would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and confer other rights and privileges, and will amend or repeal all or some of the provisions of the Cambridge University and Town Waterworks Acts, 1853 to 1910, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office, House of Commons, on or before the 17th December.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1920.

In Parliament.—Session 1921.

WESTGATE AND BIRCHINGTON WATER

(Alteration of Rates; Rents and Charges for Supply of Water and for Baths and Water-closets; Supply by Measure; Supply of Water for Motor Cars, &c.; Further Powers and Provisions in Regard to the Supply of Water; Defining and Amending Respective Rights of Company and Consumers of Water; Supply to Small Houses; Provisions in Regard to Issue of Authorized but Unissued Share and Loan Capital of Company; Increase of Borrowing Powers in Respect of Existing and Authorized Share Capital; Redeemable Preference Stock and Debenture Stock; Removal of Limitation of Dividend on Preference Stock; Half-yearly Meetings; Interim Dividends; Directors; Superannuation and other Allowances; Incorporation, Amendment or Repeal of Acts and Orders.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Westgate and Birchington Water Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To empower the Company to alter, vary or increase the rates, rents and charges which they are now authorized to demand, take and recover in respect of the supply of water and for water-closets and baths within the whole or any part of their existing limits of supply, and, if thought fit, to empower them to demand, take and recover differential rates, rents and charges, vary or extinguish exemptions from such rates, rents and charges, and to alter, amend, extend or repeal all or some of the provisions of the Westgate and Birchington Water Acts, 1879 to 1900, with reference thereto.

To provide that the Company shall not be bound to supply with water otherwise than by measure various classes of buildings and premises, including houses partly used for trade or manufacturing purposes, public-houses, inns, restaurants, boarding-houses, hotels, hydropathics, schools, clubs, hospitals, common lodging-houses, public institutions, and such other classes of premises as the intended Act may prescribe, and to amend, alter or repeal the provisions of the said Act of 1879 and any other Acts relating to the Company with reference thereto.
