

"Of the Tutors, the Dean and Assistant Tutors, one at least or as many more as the Master and Resident Fellows may from time to time consider necessary, shall sleep in College or in a suitable house communicating with the College and approved by the Master and Fellows, each night during that portion of each term which is appointed by the Master for the residence of the Undergraduates, and during that part of the long vacation in which members of the College in statu pupillari are allowed to reside."

7. By amending Statute 22 in the following manner, namely:—

(a) By omitting paragraph 3, namely, the words, "The Tutors shall be appointed in the first instance for a period of three years, and on the expiration of such period the Master and Fellows shall have power to confirm the appointment for a further period, on the expiration of which further period a Tutor may be re-elected for further periods of five years at a time," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"A Tutor shall be appointed in the first instance for a period of three years, on the expiration of which period a Tutor may from time to time be re-elected for any further period not exceeding five years."

(b) By omitting paragraph 6, namely, the words, "It shall be the duty of a Tutor to watch over the conduct of his pupils loco parentis, and to advise them in respect of both their studies and conduct," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"It shall be the duty of each Tutor and Assistant Tutor to watch over the conduct of his pupils in loco parentis, and to advise them in respect both of their studies and conduct."

8. By amending Statute 23 in the following manner, namely:—

By omitting paragraph 1, namely, the words, "If a Tutor vacate his office in the interval between two successive annual meetings for the election of College Officers, the Master shall summon a meeting of the Master and Fellows to elect a new Tutor. A Tutor thus elected shall hold office till the next annual meeting for the election of College Officers and for three years in addition, and on the expiration of such period the Master and Fellows shall have power to confirm the appointment for a further period, on the expiration of which further period he may be re-elected for further periods of five years at a time," and by substituting for this paragraph the following paragraph, namely, the words:—

"If a Tutor vacate his office in the interval between two successive annual meetings for the election of College Officers, the Master shall summon a meeting of the Master and Fellows to elect a new Tutor. A Tutor thus elected shall hold office till the next annual meeting for the election of College Officers and for three years in addition, on the expiration of which period he may from time to time be re-elected for any further period not exceeding five years."

9. By amending Statute 25 in the following manner, namely:—

(a) By adding at the end of the paragraph marked (2) the following words, namely:—

"And a dividend of one hundred and twenty five pounds (125*l.*) to any Research Student elected under the provisions of Statute 6."

(b) By adding immediately after the last-mentioned paragraph a new paragraph as follows:—

"(3) To the payments of such sums to the Tuition Fund as the Council may direct."

(c) By omitting the words, "If in any year the Divisible Fund with additions (if any) from the Surplus Fund shall be insufficient for the payment of the dividends above specified to such of the Master and Fellows as are under the operation in all respects of these Statutes and the Scholarship Fund, then such sums as the Divisible Fund with such additions (if any) will admit shall be paid in the proportions above mentioned by way of dividend for that year to the said Master and Fellows and the Scholarship Fund respectively," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"If in any year the Divisible Fund with the additions (if any) from the Surplus Fund shall be insufficient for the payment of the dividends above specified to such of the Master and Fellows as are under the operation in all respects of these Statutes, the Scholarship Fund and the Research Students, then such sums as the Divisible Fund with such additions (if any) will admit shall be paid in the proportions above mentioned by way of dividend for that year to the said Master and Fellows, the Scholarship Fund and the Research Students respectively."

10. By amending Statute 27 in the following manner, namely:—

By omitting paragraphs 3, 4, 6 and 8, namely, the words, "Every Fellow, except in the cases hereinafter specified, shall vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of five years and eleven months from the time of his election, but he shall receive the whole dividend for the last year."

"If at the end of the five years and eleven months aforesaid a Fellow be filling the office of Professor, Public Orator, Registrar, or Librarian in the University, or the office of Tutor, Dean, Bursar, or Lecturer in the College, he shall retain his Fellowship so long as he continues to fill the said office or fills any other of the said offices."

"The Master and Fellows may, by vote in which not less than two-thirds of the whole body concur, prolong the tenure of a Fellow, on account of his marked services in literature or science, either for life or for periods not exceeding five years and eleven months; and they may in the same manner and for the same reason, but not otherwise, re-elect a Fellow whose tenure has expired."

"The Master and Fellows may by vote in which not less than two-thirds of those present at a meeting specially summoned for the purpose, of which at least fourteen days' notice has been given to each Fellow, concur, elect an ex-Fellow to any of the offices of Tutor, Dean, Bursar, or Lecturer, and may thereupon re-elect him to a Fellowship to be held so long only as he fills any of such offices, unless in the meantime he shall become entitled under any provision of these Statutes to retain his Fellowship for life," and by substituting for these paragraphs respectively the following paragraphs, namely, the words:—

"Every Fellow except in the cases hereinafter specified shall vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of three years from the time of his election, unless the Master and Fellows at a meeting of which at least fourteen days' notice in writing has been given to each Fellow, held
