

not more than six calendar months before the expiration of such period of three years, shall, by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of those present and voting concur, prolong the tenure of such Fellow for a further period of three years.

"If at the end of any period of the tenure of his Fellowship, a Fellow be filling the office of Professor, Public Orator, Registrary or Librarian in the University, or the office of Tutor, Dean, Bursar or Lecturer in the College, he shall retain his Fellowship so long as he continues to fill any such office."

"The Master and Fellows may by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of those present concur, prolong the tenure of a Fellow, who has held his Fellowship not less than five years and six months, on account of his marked services in literature or science, either for life or any fixed period not exceeding six years, and they may in the same manner, and for the same reason, but not otherwise, except as hereinafter provided, re-elect a Fellow whose tenure has expired."

"The Master and Fellows may by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of those present at a meeting specially summoned for the purpose, of which at least fourteen days' notice in writing has been given to each Fellow, concur, elect an ex-Fellow to any of the offices of Tutor, Dean, Bursar or Lecturer, and may at any subsequent election of Fellows re-elect him to a Fellowship to be held so long as he fills any of such offices, but no longer, unless in the meantime he shall have become entitled under any provision of these Statutes to retain his Fellowship for life."

11. By amending Statute 35 in the following manner, namely:—

By omitting paragraph 3, namely, the words, "If any difference shall arise with regard to the meaning of any part of these Statutes, the question shall be referred to the Master and Fellows. If a majority of the whole body of the Master and Fellows agree as to the meaning, their decision shall be binding; otherwise they shall refer the question without loss of time to the Visitor, who shall, with the concurrence of at least one of the two Assessors assigned to him by the University, place such construction upon the words in question as he shall think most consonant with the meaning and intent of these Statutes, and his construction shall be held to be the true construction," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"If any question shall arise in regard to the meaning of any part of these Statutes, it shall be decided by the Master and Fellows, but it shall be competent for any party affected by such decision to appeal to the Visitor, provided he appeal within two calendar months or within such extended period (if any) as shall be allowed by the Master and Fellows for the purpose after the decision shall have been given, but failing an appeal within the time allowed for the purpose the decision of the Master and Fellows shall be final. The Visitor if appealed to within due time may with the concurrence of at least one of the two Assessors assigned to him by the University affirm, vary or reverse the decision of the Master and Fellows and his decision shall be final."

12. By amending Statute 36 in the following manner, namely:—

(a) By omitting paragraph 6, namely, the words, "In order to effect gradually the reduction in the number of Fellowships to fourteen, the Master and Fellows may suppress each alternate vacant Fellowship until the number be reduced to fourteen."

(b) By omitting paragraph 8, namely, the words, "Any Fellow elected between the fourteenth day of March, 1878, and the sixth day of October, 1880, shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for six years and eleven months and to receive the dividend of a Fellowship for seven years," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"Nothing in these amending Statutes contained shall prejudice or affect the rights and tenure of Fellows elected between the 14th day of March, 1878, and the date when these amending Statutes shall be approved by His Majesty in Council, but such rights and tenure shall be and remain regulated by the Statutes of the College as existing on the first day of October, 1920."
