By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Apprehending Grafcomb.

WILLIAM R.

W Hereas upon Examination taken before a Committee of the House of Commons, touching the Printing, Publishing and Dispersing of a False, Scandalous and Seditious Pamphlet, Descriptive to the Freedom and Liberties of Parliament, Intituled, An Account of the Proceedings of the House of Commons in Relation to the ReCoining the Clipped Money, and Falling the Price of Guinea's, It appeared that one Grafcomb was the Person that brought the Manuscript of the said Pamphlet to the Printer to be Printed: And whereas the said Grafcomb hath Absconded from his usual Place of Abode, and is fled from Justice: And whereas the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament Assembled, have humbly besought Us to Issue Our Royal Proclamation, for Apprehending of the said Grafcomb; We therefore (with the Advice of Our Privy Council) have thought fit to Issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Commanding all Our Loving Subjects to Discover, Take and Apprehend the said Grafcomb where-ever he may be found, and to Carry him before the next Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate, who is hereby Required to Commit him to the next Goal, there to Remain until he shall be thence Delivered by due Course of Law. And We do hereby Require the said Justice or other Chief Magistrate immediately to give Notice thereof to Our Privy Council, or to one of our Principal Secretaries of State. And We do hereby strictly Charge and Command all Our Loving Subjects (as they will answer the contrary at their Perils) that they do not any ways Conceal, but Discover, Take and Apprehend the said Grafcomb, to the end he may be Proceeded against according to Law. And We do hereby Promise and Declare, that whosoever shall Discover and Apprehend the said Grafcomb, and bring him before such Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate, shall Receive, as a Reward, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds mentioned in Our late Proclamation, bearing Date the Fifth Day of November last; Which said Sum of Five hundred Pounds the Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby Directed to Pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Kensington the Tenth Day of December, 1696. In the Eighth Year of Our Reign.

Malaga, Nov. 16. N. S. A Vessel is arrived here from Cuba, and brings Letters dated the 11th of this month, which say the Moores are still before that place, and seem resolved to continue the Siege during the Winter; That they are making a new Line nearer to the Town than any of their former Works, but that the Spaniards give them so much disturbance by their Cannon and frequent Sallies, that they make but little progress; and at the same time the Belieged have cast up several new Redoubts at some distance from their Outworks, to hinder the Enemies approach.

Leghorn, Nov. 26. We have advice, that a Ship called the Prince John Gastone, in which the Merchants residing here are much concerned, is safely arrived at Port Venere, about 60 miles Westward from hence. A French Man of War of 60 Guns, commanded by the Marquis de Palas, came into this Port the 14th Instant; and we hear that several other French Frigats are cruising on these Coasts. The Panther Privateer, which is now cleaning here, will go to Sea in few days, to seek for more Purchase.

Turin, Nov. 25. Count Mansfelt, the Emperor's Minister, took his Leave of the Duke of Savoy the 23d Instant, and set out from hence the next day, in order to his return to Vienna. A Regiment of Foot is ordered to Savoy, to take possession of Montmelian, which the French have quitted; they begun their march from this place yesterday; and a Regiment of Horse and another of Dragoons will take the same way in few days being to Winter in that Country.

Milan, Nov. 27. The Officers of the Forces in the Service of this Country, have Orders to compleat their Companies, as soon as they can, which confirms the Opinion of their being designed for Catalonia the next Summer, in case it be found necessary. The German Troops make all the diligence in their march out of this Country the Weather will allow; We understand, that they are to have their Winter Quarters in the Emperor's Hereditary Countreys that lie nearest to Germany; where the greatest part of them are to serve the next Campaign. Prince Eugene of Savoy is gone to Vienna.

Venice, Nov. 30. A Venetian Man of War called the Triumph, is arrived here in 26 days from Napoli di Romania; The Commander says, that on the 7th Instant he saw near Sapienza 9 English Men of War, and 19 Merchant Ships, who came from Turkey; and by Letters from Messina, we have an account of their safe arrival in that Port. The Captain General was with the Venetian Fleet (when this Ship came away) in the Harbour of Napoli di Romania, but had sent out a Squadron of Light Frigats to cruise in the Archipelago; From whence they had advice, that the Turkish Fleet was Careening at Scio. Letters from Alippo of the 14th of September, tell us, that the Arabs are still in possession of the Fortres of Balsora, that their number increases every day, and that they give the Turks much trouble, and oblige them to keep a great Body of Troops in those parts, which would otherwise be employed in the War.

Warsaw, Nov. 28. The Confederated Troops commit great disorders both in Poland and Lithuania; 'Tis reported, that Prince Sapika has gained a considerable advantage over the latter. The Queen, since her Reconciliation with Prince James, her Son, does all she can to promote his Election. The French Ambassador receives at the same time great Sums of Money from France, which he employs to make an Interest for the Prince of Conde; But the Party that as yet appears for him, is not of weight enough to give him any great hopes of succeeding. The last Advices from the Frontiers say, the Tatars, who made lately an Invasion into this Kingdom, are returned to Budziac, with the Spoil they had taken; but 'tis feared the good success they had in this, will encourage them to such another Expedition in a short time.

Vienna, Dec. 1. The Elector of Saxony continues still at this Court; and Prince Lewis of Baden is shortly expected. Divers Officers are arrived here from Hungary, having left their Troops in Winter Quarters; They are to have them compleat by the beginning of March. The Emperor intends to augment his Forces both in Hungary and on the Rhine; and the States of Austria will furnish several thousand men for Recruits. The last Letters from
