TUESDAY, 30 AUGUST, 1921.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 5, Sub-section 1 of the Trading with the Enemy Amendment Act, 1914, it is provided that the Custodian shall, except so far as the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of Sub-section 2 of the said Section 5, hold any money paid to, and any property vested in him under the said Act, until the termination of the present war, and shall thereafter deal with the same in such manner as His Majesty may by Order in Council direct.

And whereas, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, His Majesty was pleased by Order in Council of even date herewith to order, and did thereby order that the 31st day of August, 1921, should be treated as the date of the termination of the present war that is to say, the day at midnight on which the present war would end, provided that nothing in the said Order in Council should affect the relations between His Majesty and the Ottoman Empire until ratifications of a Treaty of Peace with that Empire should have been exchanged or deposited.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed as follows:—

1. The expression "enemy property" in this Order means all moneys paid or to be paid to and all property vested in or transferred or to be transferred to the Custodian under the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 to 1918, or any of them, and the proceeds of liquidation of such property and the investments (if any) representing the same, or the residue of such moneys, property, proceeds of liquidation and investments remaining in the hands or under the control of the Custodian after the carrying out by him of any order, direction, decision or instruction, made or given by the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof, and the exercise or purported exercise by him of his duties under the same Acts except:—

(1) Such part thereof respectively as has been or shall be paid to, vested in or transferred to or is now held by the Custodian, by reason of the owner or former owner thereof being or being deemed to be a subject of or resident or carrying on business in the former Ottoman Empire; and

(2) (a) any interest, share, rights or title of any national of the former Kingdom of Hungary or resident or person carrying on business within the territory of that Kingdom, in, of or to any British Letters Patent or any application for any British Letters Patent which have been vested in or granted to the Custodian under the provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 to 1918, or any of such Acts;

(b) any interest, share, rights or title of any national of the former Kingdom of Hungary or resident or person carrying on business within the territory of that Kingdom, in, of or to any British copyrights which have been vested in the Custodian under the provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 to 1918, and of Trading with the Enemy (Copyright) Act, 1916, or any of such Acts or any money arising from the exercise by the Custodian of his rights as the owner of any such copyright;

which excepted property is hereinafter called "excepted Enemy Property."

The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if this Order were made an Act of Parliament.

2. Except so far as may have been otherwise directed by the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof enemy property shall be and become subject as from the date of the coming into force of this Order to the provisions of the Orders in Council made or to be made under the Treaty of Peace Act, 1919, the Treaty of Peace (Austria and Bulgaria) Act, 1920, or the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Act, 1921, and to the charges created thereunder in the same way and to the same extent as it would be so subject if it had been held at the dates of the coming into force of the respective Treaties of Peace with Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Hungary, on behalf of the persons who were or would but for the same having been paid or transferred to or vested in the Custodian, have been then entitled thereto.

Provided that nothing in those Orders or herein shall operate to require any enemy property which has been or shall be released from the charges thereby respectively established to be credited or accounted for to an ex-enemy Government.

3. All enemy property shall be subject to deduction of the costs, charges and expenses of the Custodian, including any statutory fee.

4. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the execution and carrying out of any order, direction, decision or instruction made or given by the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof in respect of any enemy property so far as the same shall not have been fully executed or carried out or the continuance of any legal or other proceedings to which in consequence of any such order, direction, decision or instruction or in the exercise or purported exercise of his duties under the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914-1918, the Custodian is a party. Provided that when by any order of the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof it has been provided that any enemy property shall not be dealt with without further order or without notice to any particular person or persons such provision shall cease to be operative at the expiration of six months from the date of the coming into force of this Order except in so far as in the meantime the person or persons in question shall by notice in writing to the Custodian have asserted some right or interest in the enemy property in such order referred to.

5. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any claim on behalf of His Majesty in respect of Income Tax, Super Tax, Death Duties or other revenue, charge or impost against enemy property or the owners or former owners thereof and the Custodian or the Administrator of Austrian, Bulgarian or Hungarian property as the case may be shall have power to settle, agree and out of the appropriate enemy property and the proceeds thereof pay or provide for any such claim.

6. Excepted enemy property shall be held by the Custodian subject to the same direction as the same is now held until His Majesty by Order in Council shall otherwise direct.

7. This Order may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Custodian Direction) Order, 1921, and shall come into force at midnight on the said 31st day of August, 1921.
