

(2) (a) any interest, share, rights or title of any national of the former Kingdom of Hungary or resident or person carrying on business within the territory of that Kingdom, in, of or to any British Letters Patent or any application for any British Letters Patent which have been vested in or granted to the Custodian under the provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 to 1918, or any of such Acts;

(b) any interest, share, rights or title of any national of the former Kingdom of Hungary or resident or person carrying on business within the territory of that Kingdom, in, of or to any British copyrights which have been vested in the Custodian under the provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914 to 1918, and of Trading with the Enemy (Copyright) Act, 1916, or any of such Acts or any money arising from the exercise by the Custodian of his rights as the owner of any such copyright;

which excepted property is hereinafter called "excepted Enemy Property."

The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if this Order were made an Act of Parliament.

2. Except so far as may have been otherwise directed by the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof enemy property shall be and become subject as from the date of the coming into force of this Order to the provisions of the Orders in Council made or to be made under the Treaty of Peace Act, 1919, the Treaty of Peace (Austria and Bulgaria) Act, 1920, or the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Act, 1921, and to the charges created thereunder in the same way and to the same extent as it would be so subject if it had been held at the dates of the coming into force of the respective Treaties of Peace with Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Hungary, on behalf of the persons who were or would but for the same having been paid or transferred to or vested in the Custodian, have been then entitled thereto.

Provided that nothing in those Orders or herein shall operate to require any enemy property which has been or shall be released from the charges thereby respectively established to be credited or accounted for to an ex-enemy Government.

3. All enemy property shall be subject to deduction of the costs, charges and expenses of the Custodian, including any statutory fee.

4. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the execution and carrying out of any order, direction, decision or instruction made or given by the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof in respect of any enemy property so far as the same shall not have been fully executed or carried out or the continuance of any legal or other proceedings to which in consequence of any such order, direction, decision or instruction or in the exercise or purported exercise of his duties under the Trading with the Enemy Acts, 1914-1918, the Custodian is a party. Provided that when by any order of the Board of Trade or the High Court or a Judge thereof it has been provided that any enemy property shall not be dealt with without further order or without notice to any particular person or persons such provision shall cease to be operative at the expiration of six months from the date of the coming into force of this Order except in so far as in the meantime the person or persons in question shall by notice in writing to the Custodian have asserted some right or interest in the enemy property in such order referred to.

5. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any claim on behalf of His Majesty in respect of Income Tax, Super Tax, Death Duties or other revenue, charge or impost against enemy property or the owners or former owners thereof and the Custodian or the Administrator of Austrian, Bulgarian or Hungarian property as the case may be shall have power to settle, agree and out of the appropriate enemy property and the proceeds thereof pay or provide for any such claim.

6. Excepted enemy property shall be held by the Custodian subject to the same direction as the same is now held until His Majesty by Order in Council shall otherwise direct.

7. This Order may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Custodian Direction) Order, 1921, and shall come into force at midnight on the said 31st day of August, 1921.

Almeric FitzRoy.

By virtue of an Act passed in the 24th year of the Reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled, "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the 10th and 15th years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes The Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes"; And of an Act passed in the 26th year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess."

I DO hereby give Notice, that the Death of Thomas Wintringham, Esquire, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of the Parts of Lindsey, Louth Division, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a New Writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of the Parts of Lindsey, Louth Division, at the end of six days after the insertion of this Notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this 27th day of August, 1921.
