

Glynne Road and an occupation road leading to the river Aidda, thence south-eastward along such prolonged line and the centre line of the said occupation road and Glynne Road to High Street, thence north-eastward along the centre of High Street to the Borough Boundary on the river Cegin, thence following the line of the Borough Boundary southward and then westward to the boundary of the West or Glanadda Ward in the centre of Pentir Road, thence along the centre of Pentir Road and the centre of the Maes Footpath to a point above the East Tunnel of the London and North Western Railway at Bangor Railway Station which would be intersected by a prolonged line drawn along the centre of the said Railway Line, thence westward along such prolonged line and the centre of the said Railway Line through Bangor Railway Station to the boundary of North or Upper Bangor Ward, thence in a north-easterly direction along the last-mentioned boundary as hereinbefore defined to the point of commencement.

"THE EAST OR HIRAEEL WARD.—On the north and north-west the boundary of the North or Upper Bangor Ward, from the point in the centre of Garthi Road near Number 5 Erw Fair, where the North or Upper Bangor Ward and the South or Town Ward boundaries meet, and thence in a north-easterly direction along the said boundary of the said North or Upper Bangor Ward as hereinbefore described to the Borough Boundary. On the west and south, from the point last mentioned where the said North or Upper Bangor and the South or Town Ward boundaries meet, and thence in a south-eastward and north-eastward direction along the boundary of the said South or Town Ward as hereinbefore described to the Borough Boundary on the river Cegin. On the east and north-east, the boundary of the Borough.

"THE WEST OR GLANADDA WARD.—On the north and north-east the boundary of the North or Upper Bangor Ward from the point on the Borough Boundary in the centre of Ffriddoedd Road and thence north-eastward, south and south-eastward along the boundary of that Ward as hereinbefore defined to the boundary of the South or Town Ward on the London and North Western Railway Line hereinbefore described, thence continuing south-eastward and southward along the boundary of that Ward, as hereinbefore defined to the Borough Boundary. On the south, south-west and west the boundary of the Borough, from the point on the said Borough Boundary last mentioned in the Pentir Road at the most south-westerly point of the said South or Town Ward, thence south-westward, north-westward, north-eastward and north-westward along the said Borough Boundary to the boundary of the North or Upper Bangor Ward at the point of commencement aforesaid.

"And when in the foregoing descriptions of the ward boundaries (so far as such descriptions do not refer to the Borough Boundary) a street, road or footpath is given as the boundary of a Ward, the boundary is to be taken as the centre of such street, road or footpath, and when any street or road is described as joining another street or road, the point of junction is to be taken as the point at which lines drawn along the centres of the two streets or roads, and continued, would intersect each other.

"And when a river or stream is given as the boundary of a Ward, the boundary (except when it refers to the Borough Boundary) is to be taken as the medium filum of such river or stream.

"And where reference is made to the Borough Boundary, the already determined boundary line of the Borough is meant.

"Article IV.—The North Ward shall continue to be represented by Six Councillors, the East Ward shall continue to be represented by Three Councillors. The South Ward shall henceforth be represented by Six Councillors, and the West Ward by Three Councillors.

"Article V.—The existing Councillors of the said Borough of Bangor shall be assigned to and apportioned among the said Wards as hereinbefore determined as follows:—
