

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Steward.

Mr. Secretary Shortt.

Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

Mr. C. J. Doherty.

WHEREAS Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, on the 30th day of November, 1882, made an Order in Council entitled "The Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882":

And whereas His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh, on the 4th day of July, 1908, made an Order in Council entitled "The Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1908":

And whereas it is expedient to amend the same:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1921, and where not inconsistent therewith shall be read as one with the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882, the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1883, the Cyprus Courts of Justice Amendment Order, 1902, the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1908, the Cyprus Courts of Justice Amendment Order, 1909, the Cyprus Courts of Justice Amendment Order, 1910, and the Cyprus Courts of Justice Amendment Order, 1917, and the said Orders and this Order may be cited together as the Cyprus Courts of Justice Orders, 1882 to 1921.

2. Clause 3 of the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882, shall be construed and read as if the following definition were therein substituted for the definition of "English Law":—

"English Law" shall mean the Common Law, the Rules of Equity, and the statutes of general application, which were in force in England on the 5th November, 1914, save in so far as other provision has been made or shall be made by Cyprus Statute Law.

3. Clause 28 of the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882, as amended by the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1908, is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) Sub-clause (1) of the said clause shall be read as if £10 were inserted throughout as the limit of value instead of the sums of £5 and £2 mentioned therein.

(2) The last paragraph of sub-clause (1) of the said clause shall be read as if £20 were inserted therein instead of £10.

(3) The first proviso to sub-clause (2) of the said clause shall be read as if "£20 instead of £10" were inserted therein instead of "£10 instead of £2."

4. Sub-clause (b), (c) and (d) and the proviso to sub-clause (e) of clause 48 of the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882, as amended by the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1908, and the Schedules referred to therein are hereby repealed without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder and the said clause shall henceforth be read as if the following were inserted as sub-clause (b) thereof:—

(b) If a complaint is brought before a Magisterial Court constituted as aforesaid of an offence committed within the local jurisdiction of the Court being one of the offences following, namely:—

(i) Wilfully receiving or taking the control and disposition of property not being of the value of over ten pounds knowing it to have been stolen;

(ii) Any offence under any Post Office, Customs, Excise, or other Revenue Law where the fixed or maximum fine does not exceed ten pounds, or with the consent of the Crown where the fixed or maximum fine exceeds ten pounds;

(iii) Any other offence punishable with imprisonment not exceeding three years or a fine or both if there is no question of compensation or if the amount for which the guilty person would be liable for compensation does not exceed ten pounds; the Court, if it think it expedient so to do, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and if the accused consents to the case being tried summarily by the Court may deal summarily with the offence and adjudge the accused, if found guilty of the offence, to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months, and may in addition thereto or instead thereof impose a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

5. Clause 207 of the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882, shall henceforth be read and take effect as if the following proviso had been added thereto:—

Provided also that in any Cypriot action in respect of money goods or other property movable or immovable or for damages of the value or to an amount not exceeding fifty pounds the President or one of the Ordinary Judges shall have all the powers of the full Court for the purpose of hearing and determining the same.

6. This Order shall come into force on and from a day to be appointed in that behalf by the High Commissioner, which shall be notified by Proclamation to be published in the Cyprus Gazette.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Steward.

Mr. Secretary Shortt.

Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

Mr. C. J. Doherty.

WHEREAS by the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920, provision has been made for the enforcement in England and Ireland of maintenance orders made by any Court in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom to which the said Act extends:

And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things provided that where His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of maintenance orders made by Courts within England and Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council extend the said Act to that part, and thereupon that part shall become a part of His Majesty's Dominions to which the said Act extends:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Legislature of the Isle of Man, being a
