

rank assigned to the men in the Royal Air Force being agreed upon by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty and the Air Council, subject to the re-entries for—

(1) Continuous Service being not later than one month after the date of final discharge from the Royal Air Force.

(2) Non-Continuous Service being within the period allowed by the existing Regulations for men re-entering for further service after discharge on completion of a Non-Continuous Service Engagement.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of October, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of October, 1921 (C.W. 13252/21), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty’s Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 22nd day of January, 1920, to authorize, inter alia, an establishment of 13 Officers of the Regulating Branch of the Royal Navy comprised as follows:—

- 1 Lieutenant-at-Arms;
- 3 Commissioned Masters-at-Arms;
- 9 Warrant Masters-at-Arms:

“And whereas the exigencies of Your Majesty’s Service now require the appointment of one additional Warrant Master-at-Arms:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve of the establishment of the Regulating Branch being increased accordingly to the following numbers:—

- 1 Lieutenant-at-Arms;
- 3 Commissioned Masters-at-Arms;
- 10 Warrant Masters-at-Arms:

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in arrangements which admit of this increase.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of October, 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 28th day of October, 1921 (C.W. 14714/21), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty’s Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 8th day of August, 1917, to sanction the establishment of the rank of Chief Naval Instructor (now styled Instructor Captain) and to provide that the number of Instructor Captains shall not exceed four and that vacancies occurring after the first four appointments have been made shall not be filled without the further concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury:

“And whereas we are of opinion that the basis on which the establishment of Instructor Captains is fixed should be revised, and that the number of Instructor Captains borne should bear a definite proportion to the number of Officers of all ranks in the Instructor Branch:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment of Instructor Captains being one-eighteenth of the total number of Officers of the Instructor Branch of all ranks, including temporary Officers, borne on the Active List at the time.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
