

move such pipes, meters, fittings, and apparatus.

To enlarge the powers of the Company of cutting off supplies of gas in cases where they are authorized to discontinue a supply, and to enable the Company to disconnect any service pipes at the meter, and to prohibit the re-connection of such service pipes without the consent of the Company, and to confer upon the Company for such purposes all necessary powers of entry on premises.

To relieve the Company from the obligation to supply gas for all or any purposes from any main of which the capacity is insufficient or so as to interfere with the sufficiency of the gas required for lighting or domestic purposes.

To make provisions as to the form and mode of service of notices by the Company on consumers of gas as to the mode of recovery of demands and penalties and authorizing the inclusion of more than one sum in any summons or warrant issued for the purposes of the intended Act.

To make provisions for the use of back pressure valves in all cases of consumers using air at high pressure for or in connection with the consumption of gas.

To enable the Company to require the use of anti-fluctuators in certain cases.

To make provision as to the material size and strength of and to provide for bye-laws as to meters, pipes, fittings and apparatus.

To empower the Company to put in force and vary a scheme or schemes for securing the participation of all or any of their employees in the profits of the Company's undertaking and to provide for trustees for any such scheme and for the issue of stock to such employees in such manner as the intended Act may prescribe.

To confer on the Company powers for and in relation to the laying down and maintaining of mains, pipes and apparatus in connection with the supply of gas in, along, across and under streets, roads, footways and places not dedicated to public use.

To authorize the Company and any Gas Company whose limits of supply adjoin or are near to the limits of supply of the Company to enter into and carry into effect agreements for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

The supply of gas by either Company within the limits of supply of the other Company within the limitations prescribed by the intended Act.

The supply of gas in bulk by either Company to the other.

The working of any part of the undertaking of one Company by and the execution of any works for and on behalf of the other.

And the intended Act will provide for the application of all or any of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets for the purposes of any such agreement.

To empower the Company to supply gas in bulk to local and other authorities, companies and persons within or beyond the Company's limits of supply and to enter and carry into effect contracts and arrangements with reference to such supply.

To repeal, vary, alter or amend all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1867 and any other Act relating to the Company.

The intended Act will vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would interfere with the objects thereof and will also confer such rights and privileges and all such incidental powers as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes aforesaid.

To repeal Section 45 (as to charge for public lamps in the borough of Windsor) of the Act of 1867 and to substitute other provisions therefor.

To incorporate and apply with or without modification or to render inapplicable to the Company some or all of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871; the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889; the Sale of Gas Act, 1859; the Sale of Gas Act (Amendment) Act, 1860; the Lands Clauses Acts; the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, and to repeal, alter or amend all or any of the provisions of any of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or any other Act or Order of or relating to or affecting the Company.

On or before the 17th day of December next printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1921.
