

tration of those matters to the Government of Northern Ireland as references to the Lord Lieutenant and to the Lord Lieutenant in Council;

(b) the expression "Act of Parliament," save where the context otherwise requires, means, as respects Northern Ireland, an Act either of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

7. Where by any enactment relating to services other than Irish services any order, regulation, notice or other instrument is required or authorized to be published in the Dublin Gazette, the enactment, if the matter in question affects Northern Ireland, shall be construed as requiring or authorizing publication also in the Belfast Gazette.

8. For the purpose of determining the domicile of any person, Northern Ireland shall be deemed always to have been a separate part of the United Kingdom.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of January, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHIEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act; and

(2) to make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom:

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the first day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to Irish services in connection with Local Government (including Housing), Public Health (not including Health Insurance), Poor Law, Old Age Pensions, Roads, Road Transport (excluding Railways), Ferries and Bridges, Firearms and Explosives, Prisons, Reformatory and Industrial Schools, and Lunatics, but no day has as yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of Enactments) (No. 2) Order, 1922.

(2) In the Order the expression "appointed day" means the first day of December nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the enactments hereinafter mentioned shall have effect subject to the modifications and adaptations set out in this Order, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respects matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(2) Subject to the express modifications and adaptations made by this Order the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made under the said Act containing adaptations of general application shall, if and so far as they are applicable to the enactments adapted by this Order, apply thereto in like manner as to other enactments.

(3) The adaptations and modifications effected by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so adapted or modified and in force immediately before the appointed day in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued; and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

(4) Article 9 of the General Adaptation of Enactments (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, shall have effect as if references to orders, schemes, rules or regulations made under any enactment adapted or modified by that Order included references to instruments issued under any such enactment.

3.—(1) In the application to Northern Ireland of section five of the Poor Relief (Ireland) Act, 1838, and section fourteen of the Municipal Corporations (Ireland) Act, 1840, references to a Minister of Northern Ireland shall be substituted for references to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

(2) The County Surveyors (Ireland) Act, 1862, and the County Surveyors (Ireland) Act,
