

Genoa, Jan. 27. Two Vessels are arriv'd here this week from Messina, the Masters who report, that they are firing out 10 Men of War at Toulon, which 'tis believ'd are destin'd for Catalonia.

Lisbon, Jan. 28. On the 24th Instant arriv'd here the Bridget, Capt. Hevern, from Toulon; and the 26th the Bilboa Galley, Capt. Leonard Mocher, from Alexandria; The latter brings advice, that Capt. Kent, Commander of the Slaughter, to k. lately a French Ship of above 200 Tons laden with Corn from the Moraea, and sold her for 20000 Dollars. The Tuscany, Capt. Bary, sail'd this week for Seaton. The homeward-bound Turkey Convoy departed from Troy the 31st of the last month, under command of Commodore Moody. The Great Prince and Princess are come to pass the Carnival in this place.

Venice, Febr. 2. The Senate continue to give out Commissions for new Levies; part of which are to be employed in Dalmatia; and the rest in the Moraea. They work with great diligence in the Arsenal here on several new Men of War and Gallies, which are intended for the Service of the next Campaign.

Vienna, Febr. 2. Prince Lewis of Baden is arriv'd here from Germany. Count Harach is gone for Italy, and after having dispatched the Business he is charg'd with at Milan, will embark at Genova, in order to his passing to the Court of Spain, where he is to reside on the part of the Emperor. The Baron Seyley, whom his Imperial Majesty has appointed his Third Plenipotentiary for the Treaty of Peace, prepares for his departure; the other two, the Count de Gaurits, and the Count de Straetman, being already at the Hague.

Frankfort, Febr. 10. This City raises Men in order to furnish their Quota of the Troops the several Circles have resolv'd to bring into the Field this Summer. A great Magazine is provided at Hailbron for the use of the Confederate Forces.

Hamburgh, Febr. 12. Letters from Warsaw of the 28th past give an account, that the French Ambassador, and those of his Party, did all they could to hinder the good success of the Commission of Lemberg, but by all appearance they will miss of their aim. Prince James was gone to Silesia, and 'tis discouf'd, that he intends to make a Visit to the Court of Vienna. Here passes nothing at present in the Business of Holstein.

Paris, Febr. 11. A Council of War was held at Ver-sailles two days ago, where the French King named the Generals that are to command his Armies this Summer, viz. the Marschals de Villeroi and Boufflers in Flanders; de Choiseul on the Upper-Rhine; de Camille on the Lower-Rhine; and the Duke de Vendosme in Catalonia; and they have all received Orders to hasten the preparations for their departure. The French King has named the Count de Briole to go his Ambassador to the Duke of Savoy. They continue to fit out about 20 Men of War at Brest; and 10 or 12 at Rocheport. We have had no News of Monsieur Pointi since he sail'd from Brest. The two young Princes of Poland are going home again; 'Tis said, that the Abbot Polignac, the French Ambassador in Poland, will be recalled, not being acceptable to the Chief Ministers at that Court; but no body is yet named to succeed him. The French Plenipotentiaries for the Treaty of Peace are ready to depart; and stay only for their Passports.

Brussels, Febr. 13. On Friday last above 100 Wagons were sent from Mannes towards Maastricht; 'Tis believ'd they are to carry Provisions to Namur; where Lieutenant General Cochorne lies very ill; and the Elector of Bavaria has sent him his first Physician. The French Officers meet with great difficulty, to get Horses for recruiting their Cavalry.

Hague, Febr. 15. N. S. The Letters from Namur come in this day, 13y, a great Convoy of all sorts of Provisions was safely arriv'd there from Maastricht and Mannes. The Centurion and Ess-Prize, are still at Hilwoer-fluys, being detain'd by the Ice.
