

(8) The Consular Officer may require the production of such evidence that an applicant for registration is entitled to the status of a British subject as he may see fit, but subject to such directions as may be issued by the Secretary of State.

(9) If any British subject neglects to obtain registration under the provisions of this Order, he shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject in the Ottoman Dominions, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £2 for each instance of such failure, but he shall, although not registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts in the Ottoman Dominions.

8. From and after the commencement of this Order, Articles 151-161 inclusive of the Principal Order are repealed, but this repeal shall not prejudice any rights, obligations, or liabilities accrued thereunder.

9. The Secretary of State may, by notice in writing published in such manner as he may think fit, suspend the operation of Article 7 of this Order in any part of the Ottoman Dominions in which he considers that sufficient provision is made by local enactments for the registration of British subjects.

General.

10. No proceedings which may have been taken previous to the making of this Order in any place within the limits of this Order before any court established under the Principal Order shall be questioned upon the ground of any lack of validity on the part of the court in or before which, or of the judge before whom, such proceedings were taken.

11. In Article 103 of the Principal Order the words "except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution or nullity or jactitation of marriage" are hereby repealed and from and after the commencement of this Order the Supreme Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have for and within the Ottoman Dominions with respect to British subjects all such jurisdiction in matrimonial causes as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England.

12.—(1) This Order shall take effect as soon as it is first exhibited in the public office of the Supreme Court, and that date is in this Order referred to as the commencement of the Order.

(2) For that purpose the Judge of the Supreme Court shall, on the receipt by him of a certified printed copy of the Order, cause the same to be affixed and exhibited conspicuously in that Office. He shall also keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month from that first exhibition.

(3) Proof shall not in any proceeding or matter be required that the provisions of this Article have been complied with, nor shall any act or proceeding be invalidated by any failure to comply with any such provisions.
