

And whereas by Article 241 of the Treaty of Peace with Hungary it is provided that rights of literary and artistic property, as such property is defined in the International Convention referred to therein, shall be re-established or restored in the territories of the High Contracting Parties in favour as the case may be of the persons who were respectively entitled to the benefit of them at the moment when the state of war commenced or their legal representatives, and that rights which, except for the war, would have been acquired during the war in consequence of the publication of a literary or artistic work shall be recognised and established in favour of those persons who would have been entitled thereto, subject nevertheless to the right (thereby reserved) to impose limitations, conditions or restrictions as therein mentioned on rights of literary or artistic property acquired before, during or after the war as therein referred to by Hungarian nationals (as defined in the said Treaty of Peace):

And whereas by the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, and the Order of the Board of Trade dated the 16th day of August, 1921, effect has been given to the provisions of the Treaty of Peace mentioned in the preceding paragraph of this Order:

And whereas His Majesty, by virtue of the authority conferred on Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, and having regard to the provisions of the revised Berne Copyright Convention, was pleased to make an Order in Council, dated the 24th day of June, 1912 (hereinafter called the Principal Order), extending the protection of the said Act to certain classes of works to which protection is guaranteed by the said Convention:

And whereas Hungary has adhered to the said Convention:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon him by the Copyright Act, 1911, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(1) The Principal Order shall extend to Hungary as if that country were amongst the foreign countries of the Copyright Union therein named, subject to the following modifications:—

(a) The provisions of Article 2, proviso (iii) (a), shall apply as if Hungary were included amongst the foreign countries named in those provisions.

(b) In the application of the provisions of Article 3 of the Principal Order to works of which the country of origin is Hungary the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act and for the commencement of the Principal Order.

(c) In the application to such works of Sections 1 (2) (d) and 19 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act in Sections 19 (7) and 19 (8) wherever that expression occurs, and the 14th day of February, 1922, for the passing of the Act.

(d) In the application to such works of Section 24 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act wherever that expression occurs in subsection 1 (a) and for the 26th July, 1910, in subsection 1 (b).

(e) In the case of works to which the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, and the Order of the Board of Trade, dated the 16th day of August, 1921, relate, nothing in this Order shall be construed as removing any limitations, conditions or restrictions imposed upon such works by the said Orders.

(2) This Order may be cited as the Berne Copyright Convention (Principal Order Amendment) (Hungary) Order, 1922.

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders accordingly.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 21st day of April, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920, provision has been made for the enforcement in England and Ireland of maintenance orders made by a Court in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom to which the said Act extends:

And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things provided that where His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of maintenance orders made by Courts within England and Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council extend the said Act to that part, and thereupon that part shall become a part of His Majesty's Dominions to which the said Act extends:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Legislatures of the parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereinafter mentioned have made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement within those parts of maintenance orders made by Courts within England and Ireland:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920, shall apply to the parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereunder mentioned:—

Western Australia,
Tasmania.

And the Right Honourable Winston Spencer Churchill, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
