

or thing done by a Consular officer in the execution of his Office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees:

And whereas by "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1921," tables of fees to be taken by Consular officers have been fixed:

And whereas it is expedient to make an alteration in respect of a certain fee set forth in tables annexed to that Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1922."

2. The words "Certificate of origin of goods and filing copy" in fee No. 36 are hereby deleted and the following substituted therefor:—

"Certificate of origin and/or of interest in, or of cost of production of goods and filing copy."

3. This Order shall come into operation forthwith.

And the Most Honourable George Nathaniel, Marquess Curzon of Kedleston, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 21st day of April, 1922.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 2nd day of March, 1922, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Great Whelnetham with part of the neighbouring Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham and for effecting the union of the residue of the said Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham with the contiguous Benefice (being a Rectory) of Bradfield Saint George all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Henry Bernard, late Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Act, 1919, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said Benefice of Great Whelnetham with a portion of the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham and further to inquire into and report upon the union of the said Benefice of Bradfield Saint George with the remaining portion of the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham duly made their Report to the Right Reverend Albert, now Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich and therein recommended the severance from the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham of the Benefice of Rushbrooke and the union of the Benefice of Rushbrooke so severed with the contiguous Benefice of Bradfield Saint George, and therein further recommended the union of the remaining portion of the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham with the neighbouring Benefice of Great Whelnetham and the terms for effecting the said two unions, and the said Albert, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for effecting the two unions of Benefices so recommended as aforesaid which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report but with the assent of the said Albert, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, embodies certain modifications thereof:

"And whereas all the said Benefices of Great Whelnetham, Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham, and Bradfield Saint George are now full, the Reverend Thomas Alan Johnson Ridpath being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Great Whelnetham the Reverend Robert Gibson being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham and the Reverend Edward George Boulton Inge being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bradfield Saint George:

"And whereas the said Thomas Alan Johnson Ridpath if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Great Whelnetham has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Whelnetham and the said Edward George Boulton Inge if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bradfield Saint George has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefices of Bradfield Saint George with Rushbrooke if and when the unions which are hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham and Bradfield Saint George now belongs to the same Patron:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Albert, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That a portion of the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham that is to say the Benefice of Rushbrooke shall be severed from the remaining portion of the United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham and that the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham after the severance of such portion as aforesaid and the said Benefice of Great Whelnetham shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Whelnetham' but the Parishes of the said Benefices of Great Whelnetham and Little Whelnetham shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That the severed portion of the said United Benefice of Rushbrooke with Little Whelnetham and the said Benefice of Bradfield Saint George shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls
