The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authority.

From Thurlday, December 31. to Monday, January 4. 1668.

Milford, Decemb. 24.

He 16th inftant the Amity of Southampton laden with Wines and Fruit from Malaga, having been by a violent Storm forced from ker Anchor at Ramsey Sound, was driven on fhore near St. Pavids-Head, and. loft, with all her Cargo, the ment faving themselves in their Boat on Ram-fey Illand. Swanfey, Decemb. 28. Here is fately put in here the Briend/bip of London with Salt and Fruit, a Rotter dam Vessel with Salt and Tarre for Kinsale, and one Barnstabie ship homewards bound from Rochelle; the latter telling us of many Wrecks of English, French, and Dutch, upon the Coasts of France.

Pendennis, Decemb. 28. On Monday last in the Evening came in here a French Veffel of 300 Tans, 26 Guns, and about 50 Men, laden with Sugars and Tobacco. On Thursday last put in here one Vessel from Malaga with Wine and Fruits for Southampton, one from Alecant bound for Weymouth, and on Saturday two Londoners and some Tarmouth men for Bourdeaux.

Naples, Decemb. 1. The 25th past arrived in this Bay Sir Thomas Allen with a Squadron of English thips, having whited the Coafts of Barbary, having been in all places re-ceived with much civility, and fettled all affairs to his fa-tisfaction. The first of November he left Tunis, and on the fixth following came to an Anchor before Tripoly; upon whole appearance the King of that place fent out a Brigantine with the Captain of the Port, his Favourite , to complement him and bid him welcome ; Sir Thomas returning the Complement by two of his Captains, the next day the King fent to him a Prefent of Sheep and Oxen 3 affuring him of his readiness to maintain and renew the ancient Friendship, and continue the Articles formerly agreed on. The 9th he failed thence, fome of his thips having by the violence of the Winds, during his flay there, loft their An-The 15th of the fame moneth he came to an Anchor chers. af Meffina ; where for feveral dayes he was forced to continue Wind-bound. The 24th he failed thence, and the next day arrived here, where he was treated with much respect 3 and a return made him for his Salute, of 17 Guns for his 15 ; after fome few dayes fpent in this Port, he intends to put sgain to fearfor Legorne.

stockholm, Dec. *. On Tuelday laft, was folemnly obferved the Kings Birth-day, on which he entred upon the 14th year of his age: Thie King, Queen, and the principal perfons of the Contribuing that day diverted by a Courle at the Ring for divers prizes given by His Majefty, the folemnity concluding with a Ball, which continued the greateft part of the night ; the next day, His Majefty, with the whole Court went to Dranizbolme.

Madrid, Dec. 13. The 8th inftant dyed here the Duke de Medind de las Torres, after two days only violent diftemper of a Feaver, His charge of President of the Council of Lingy has many Competitors; but 'tis said, the Queen is most inclinable to conferre it on the Count de Pigneranda, whose employment as President of the Council of the Indies, may probably fall to the share of the Count d' Oropesa.

Some few days fince happened here a quarrel between the Matter of the Horfe to the Portugal Ambatiader, and a Gentleman of Bijcay, which proceeding to an appointment in the field, the Matter of the Horfe was unhappily killed, and his Brother his fecond hurt ; the fecond of the other fide killeds the Principal elcaping that Encounter, but fince faid to be affafinated by fome Portugais.

Orders are lately fent to Cadis to forbid the departure of the Gallions till the next May, when the Fleet may be also equipped and fitted out to attend them, the Gallions being also prohibited from lading themselves with Merchants Goods to the intent they may be in a better poliure to defend themlelves if they should meet with any opposition on the way.

From Cadis we are advised of the arrival there of the fhip called the Peace of Breds, belonging to Holland, from Archangelo in Muscowy, having aboard here 18 Guns and 30 Men : about the Cape St. Vincent the was met and encountered by a Corfair of Algiers of 28 Guns and 400 Men, againft whom the floutly defended her felf, and though boarded by 150 Turks, beat them off with much flaughter, and after three hours combat, forced them to quir their defign, but not without carrying off with her fome confideratble marks of that days adventure, which the is now repairing.

From Alecant we are informed, that the Vice Admiral Vander-Zaen, was with the Squadron under his Command paffed towards the Streights, and had in view feveral Turkish Corfairs, but had not been able to engage any of them; and that the Rotterdam Convoy, under the Command of the Captains Van Nes and Brachel was returning homewards.

Danzig, Decemb. 15. The Bithep of Befier's lately arrived here, is in few days intending for the Court of the Blector of Brandenbourg. From Warfam we are told, that a little before the rifing of the States, was fent thither a Letter from the Great Duke of Mufcovy, which was ordered to be publickly read in the Affembly, containing fosme complaints, that the Polanders had not fo far concurred with the Mufcovites as to foyn their forces together in oppofition to the rebel Coffacks, defiring that forme Commiffioners might be fent to take poffeffion of the City of Kievia upon the Borifibenes, which according to the laft Treaty, was to be delivered up to the Poles, and that fome perfons might be deputed to treat with him foothe fetting a perpetual peace between both Nations : fince the receipt of this Letter, 'tis faid, an Ambaffador is fuddarly to be lent into Mufcovis, who is to take care for the taking poffefion of Kievia, and to fettle all other affairs and concernments with the Great Duke.

The fame Letters farther sell us, that the Prince Radzevis is lately made Coadjuror to the Primate of the Kingdom of Poland, to affift him in the Administration of all fecular and politick affairs.

Vienna. Dec. 21. Several Commiffioners are nominated by His Imperial Majefty to be difpatched with their inftructions into the Upper Hungary in confequence of what was here agreed upon in the late confultation held with the Nobility of that Kingdom.

The 16th initiant being Sunday, His Imperial Majefty folemnly invested the Prince de Districhstein with the Collar of the Order of the Golden Fleece, as he did also at the fame time the Connt de Monsecuculi, His President of the Council of War, and Marshal General of his Camp.

From Hungary we are informed, that the Huffars and Haydukes having intelligence, that tome Turks had broken into the houles of two Gentlemen dwelling near the Fort of Fileck, whom they killed, and rifled their houles, immediately drew together to the number of about 400 of Such perfons as lived neer the place, and could be with most ease got rogether, and refolving upon revenge, marched into the Turkith Quarters about Agria, where leaving an Ambush