

Admiralty, dated the 17th day of June, 1922, (N.) in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under our consideration the emoluments payable to men on the Pensioned List employed in the Royal Naval Recruiting Service:

"And whereas we consider it expedient that the rate of emoluments authorized by Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 7th March, 1913, should now be revised:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment of Pensioner Naval Recruiters, as from the 1st July, 1922, at a flat rate of 12s. a day to cover all expenses except kit, with additional allowances of 1s. a day to men employed in the London District, and 1s. a day to the Senior Headquarters Recruiter of each District.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of June, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section six of the Juries Act, 1922, that provision may be made by Order in Council for requiring and authorizing the registration officer to mark as jurors or as special jurors in the Autumn Register for the year in which that Act comes into operation the names of the persons qualified and liable or qualified to serve as such, notwithstanding that their names have not been so marked in the electors lists, and for making, so far as relates to the operation of that Act in that year any consequential modifications in the provisions thereof:

And whereas for the purposes aforesaid it is expedient to make such provision as is hereinafter contained for the purpose of the marking of jurors in the Autumn Register for the year 1922:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by that section and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) The name of any person appearing in the Autumn Register for the year 1922 who is qualified and liable to serve as a juror shall be marked with the letter "J," and the name of any person so appearing who is qualified to serve as a special juror shall be marked with the letters "SJ" in the manner hereinafter specified.

(2) The said letter or letters shall be printed in heavy type and shall be inserted in column 3 of the register, immediately after the names of the juror concerned, as shown in the following example:—

Whitehead, Albert Stanley—J
Longmore, William—SJ

Provided that the Secretary of State may, in any particular case, authorize such variation as he thinks fit.

2.—(1) The overseers of every parish shall, if so required by the registration officer of their area, furnish him with a list of all the persons in their parish, or where the parish consists of more than one registration unit, in each registration unit in their parish, who are qualified and liable to serve as jurors, showing in the case of each person the address of his qualifying premises in that unit and elsewhere in the parish and the value of those premises for the purposes of assessment to the poor rate or inhabited house duty and his occupation, and whether he is qualified to serve as a special juror:

Provided that the registration officer may, if he thinks fit, require the overseers to insert in copies of the electors lists and lists of claimants, if any, the marks required by this Order to be inserted in the Autumn Register for the year 1922 against the names of those persons in those lists who are qualified and liable to serve as jurors or qualified to serve as special jurors, as the case may be, and to transmit to him the copies so marked.

(2) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not be deemed to relieve the overseers of their liability under subsection (3) of section one of the Juries Act, 1922, to furnish the registration officer with any further information which he may require for the purpose of enabling him to carry out the provisions of that Act and any Order in Council made thereunder with respect to the Autumn Register for the year 1922.

(3) For the purpose of furnishing the registration officer with any further information which he may require under the provisions of this Order Form C of heading I of Schedule I to the Representation of the People Order shall, with the necessary modifications, be deemed to be applicable.

3.—(1) For the purpose of the operation of the Juries Act, 1922, in the year 1922, the following shall be substituted for the first paragraph of subsection (4) of section one of that Act:—

"(4) If any person who is marked as a juror or as a special juror in the Autumn Register for the year 1922 claims that by reason of some disqualification or exemption he ought not to be so marked, he may at any time after publication of the Register and not later than the 25th day of October, 1922, apply to the registration officer to have the mark placed against his name removed."

(2) If the registration officer complies with any application made to him under subsection (4) of section one of the said Act as modified by this Order he shall forthwith notify the sheriff in writing of his decision, and in the case of every such application shall notify in
