Civil Service Commission,
 July 28, 1922.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE COMPETITIVE SELECTION OF GEOLOGISTS ON THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.
 (Under the Committee of the Privy Council for Scientific and Industrial Research.)

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. Age.—Candidate must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 30 on the 1st April of the year in which the competition is held.

2. Nationality.—No person will be eligible for appointment to the Civil Service who is not a natural-born British subject and the child of a father also a natural-born British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of candidates serving in a civil situation in which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, and provided that exception may be made as regards the father in the case of candidates who have served in His Majesty's Armed Forces in the Great War.

3. Military Service.—Until further order preference will be given to candidates who have served in His Majesty's Forces in the Great War.

4. Publicity.—The Committee of the Privy Council will take such steps as they think most appropriate to make known the existence of any vacancy or vacancies which they desire to fill on any one occasion, and the Civil Service Commissioners will satisfy themselves that the steps taken have been such as to secure all desirable publicity.

5. Application.—Application shall be made in the first instance to the Director of the Survey and Museum, who, after examining the candidates' credentials and a personal interview or such other means as the Director considers suitable, will submit the names of
